PREFACE.

This book has been compiled simply for school purposes. The hymns are of superior excellence, are unsectarian, and for the most part, hymns of true devotion. Great labor and care have been bestowed upon adapting music to the words, and while some of the standard old tunes are used, still a greater portion of the music is new, or comparatively so, to American scholars. In the arrangement, wherever possible, a new tune is followed by a familiar one in the same meter on the opposite page. It is believed that every tune in this collection can be used in the school room. In the last part will be found selections from the Scriptures for responsive readings.

- 2 Holy, holy, holy! all the saints adore Thee,
Casting down their golden crowns around the glassy sea;
Cherubim and seraphim falling down before Thee,
Thou who wast, and art, and evermore shalt be!
- 3 Holy, holy, holy! though the darkness hide Thee,
Though the eye of sinful man Thy glory may not see,
Only Thou art holy; there is none beside Thee,
Infinite in power, in love, and purity!

ALTO (BOYS).

1. Dear ties of mu-tual suc - cor bind The chil-dren of our fee - ble race;

And, if our breth - ren were not kind, This earth were but a wea - ry place.

2 We lean on others as we walk
Life's twilight path with pitfalls strewn,
And 'twere an idle boast to talk
Of treading that dim path alone.

3 Amid the snares misfortune lays,
Unseen, beneath the steps of all,
Blest is the love that seeks to raise
And stay and strengthen those who fall;

4 Till, taught by Him who, for our sake,
Bore every form of life's distress,
With every passing year we make
The sum of human sorrows less.

William Cullen Bryant.

3 Lift up your heads, ye gates.
1 Oh, blest the souls, for ever blest,
Where God as Ruler is confessed!
O happy hearts and happy homes,
To whom the King of Glory comes!

2 Fling wide thy portals, O my heart!
Be thou a temple set apart,
So shall thy Sovereign enter in,
And new and nobler life begin.

3 Deliverer, come! we open wide
Our hearts to Thee; here, Lord, abide!
Let all Thy glorious presence feel.
O King of souls, Thyself reveal!

ALTO (BOYS).

1. New ev - ery morn - ing is the love Our wak - ing and up - ris - ing prove ;

The musical score for the first system is written for Alto (Boys) in G major (one sharp) and 3/4 time. It consists of three staves: a vocal line with a treble clef, a piano accompaniment with a treble clef, and a bass line with a bass clef. The lyrics are: "1. New ev - ery morn - ing is the love Our wak - ing and up - ris - ing prove ;".

Thro' sleep and dark - ness safe - ly brought, Restored to life, and pow'r, and thought.

The musical score for the second system continues the piece. It consists of three staves: a vocal line with a treble clef, a piano accompaniment with a treble clef, and a bass line with a bass clef. The lyrics are: "Thro' sleep and dark - ness safe - ly brought, Restored to life, and pow'r, and thought." The system ends with a double bar line and repeat signs.

2 New mercies, each returning day,
Hover around us while we pray ;
New perils past, new sins forgiven,
New thoughts of God, new hopes of heaven.

3 The trivial round, the common task,
Will furnish all we need to ask ;
Room to deny ourselves, a road
To bring us daily nearer God.

4 Only, O Lord, in Thy dear love,
Fit us for perfect rest above ;
And help us this and every day,
To live more nearly as we pray.

Rev. John Keble.

Romans 8 : 14.

1 Come, gracious Spirit, heavenly Dove,
With light and comfort from above :
Be Thou our guardian, Thou our guide !
O'er every thought and step preside.

2 To us the light of truth display,
And make us know and choose thy way ;
Plant holy fear in every heart,
That we from God may ne'er depart.

3 Lead us to holiness—the road
That we must take to dwell with God ;
Lead us to Christ, the living way,
Nor let us from His precepts stray.

Rev. Simon Browne.

Divine Goodness.

ATTWOOD.

1. Thy good - ness, Lord, our souls con - fess; Thy good - ness we a - dore;

A spring whose bless - ings nev - er fail, A sea with - out a shore.

2 Sun, moon, and stars Thy love attest
 In every golden ray;
 Love draws the curtain of the night,
 And love brings back the day.

3 Thy bounty every season crowns
 With all the bliss it yields;
 With joyful clusters loads the vines,
 With strengthening grain the fields.

4 But chiefly Thy compassion, Lord,
 Is in the gospel seen;
 There, like a sun, Thy mercy shines,
 Without a cloud between.

Rev. Thos. Gibbons.

Morning.

1 Once more, my soul, the rising day
 Salutes thy waking eyes;
 Once more, my voice, thy tribute pay
 To Him that rules the skies.

2 'Tis He supports my mortal frame;
 My tongue shall speak His praise;
 My sins would rouse His wrath to flame,
 And yet His wrath delays.

3 Great God, let all my hours be Thine,
 While I enjoy the light;
 Then shall my sun in smiles decline,
 And bring a pleasant night.

Rev. Isaac Watts.

God's Peace.— Phil. 4: 7.

DYKES.

1. We bless Thee for Thy peace, O God! Deep as the bound-less sea,

Which falls like sun-shine on the road Of those who trust in Thee.

2 We ask not, Father, for repose
Which comes from outward rest,
If we may have through all life's woes
Thy peace within our breast:—

3 That peace which flows serene and deep—
A river in the soul,
Whose banks a living verdure keep:
God's sunshine o'er the whole.

4 Such, Father, give our hearts such peace,
Whate'er the outward be,
Till all life's discipline shall cease,
And we go home to thee.

Anon.

Guide us.

1 Now that the sun is gleaming bright,
Implore we, bending low,
That He, the uncreated light,
May guide us as we go.

2 No sinful word, nor deed of wrong,
Nor thoughts that idly rove;
But simple truth be on our tongue,
And in our hearts be love.

3 And grant that to Thine honor, Lord,
Our daily toil may tend;
That we begin it at Thy Word,
And in Thy favor end.

Cardinal J. H. Newman, Tr.

ALTO (BOYS).

1. Teach me, my God and King, In all things Thee to see;

And what I do in an - y - thing, To do it as for Thee.

2 To scorn the senses' sway,
While still to Thee I tend;
In all I do, be Thou the way,
In all, be Thou the end.

3 All may of Thee partake;
Nothing so small can be
But draws, when acted for Thy sake,
Greatness and worth from Thee.

4 If done beneath Thy laws,
E'en servile labors shine;
Hallowed is toil, if this the cause;
The meanest work, divine.

Rev. G. Herbert.

II The pure in heart shall see God.

1 Blest are the pure in heart,
For they shall see their God;
The secret of the Lord is theirs;
Their soul is Christ's abode.

2 He to the lowly soul
Doth still Himself impart;
And for His dwelling and His throne,
Chooseth the pure in heart.

3 Lord, we Thy presence seek;
May ours this blessing be;
Oh, give the pure and lowly heart
A temple meet for Thee!

- 2 Beneath His watchful eye
His saints securely dwell;
That Hand which bears creation up,
Shall guard His children well.
- 3 Why should this anxious load
Press down your weary mind?
Haste to your heavenly Father's throne,
And sweet refreshment find.
- 4 His goodness stands approved,
Unchanged from day to day;
I'll drop my burden at His feet,
And bear a song away.

Rev. P. Doddridge.

I3 Mercies of God.

- 1 My soul, repeat His praise,
Whose mercies are so great;
Whose anger is so slow to rise,
So ready to abate.
- 2 His power subdues our sins,
And His forgiving love,
Far as the east is from the west,
Doth all our guilt remove.
- 3 High as the heavens are raised
Above the ground we tread,
So far the riches of His grace
Our highest thoughts exceed.

Rev. Isaac Watts.

ALTO (BOYS.)

1. Gra-cious God, our Heav-enly Fa-ther, Meet and bless our school, we pray,

The first system of the musical score consists of three staves. The top staff is for the Alto (Boys) voice, the middle staff is for the right-hand piano accompaniment, and the bottom staff is for the left-hand piano accompaniment. The key signature is two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is 3/4. The lyrics are: "1. Gra-cious God, our Heav-enly Fa-ther, Meet and bless our school, we pray,"

As in hum-ble trust we gath-er, Teach-ers, schol-ars, here to-day.

The second system of the musical score also consists of three staves. The top staff is for the Alto (Boys) voice, the middle staff is for the right-hand piano accompaniment, and the bottom staff is for the left-hand piano accompaniment. The key signature and time signature remain the same as in the first system. The lyrics are: "As in hum-ble trust we gath-er, Teach-ers, schol-ars, here to-day."

- 2 Every joy and every blessing
From Thy bounteous hand we own;
May Thy love, our souls possessing,
Draw us nearer to Thy throne.
- 3 Weak, imperfect, tempted, erring,
From Thy precepts, Lord, we stray;
Let Thy spirit, from our wanderings,
Bring us back to virtue's way.
- 4 Humble, penitent, confiding,
May we rest our hope in Thee;
In Thy favor, Lord, abiding,
In Thy peace and purity.

15 For this God is our God for ever.

- 1 Children of the heavenly King,
As ye journey, sweetly sing;
Sing your Saviour's worthy praise,
Glorious in His works and ways.
- 2 Ye are traveling home to God,
In the way the fathers trod;
They are happy now, and ye
Soon their happiness shall see.
- 3 Lord, submissive make us go,
Gladly leaving all below;
Only Thou our Leader be,
And we still will follow Thee.

Musical score for Alto (Boys) in 3/4 time, key of B-flat major. The score consists of three staves: a vocal line in treble clef, a piano accompaniment in treble clef, and a piano accompaniment in bass clef. The lyrics are: "Sun and moon, re - joice be - fore Him; Praise Him, all ye stars of light.

Sun and moon, re - joice be - fore Him; Praise Him, all ye stars of light.

2 Praise the Lord, for He hath spoken;
Worlds His mighty voice obeyed:
Laws, which never can be broken,
For their guidance He hath made.

3 Praise the Lord, for He is glorious;
Never shall His promise fail.
God hath made His saints victorious;
Sin and death shall not prevail.

3 Praise the God of our salvation;
Hosts on high His power proclaim;
Heaven and earth, and all creation,
Praise and magnify His name.

John Kempthorne.

I7 My voice shalt Thou hear in the morning.

1 Praise the Lord, when blushing morning
Wakes the blossoms fresh with dew,
Praise Him when revived creation
Beams with beauties fair and new.

2 Praise the Lord, when early breezes
Come so fragrant from the flowers,
Praise, thou willow, by the brook-side,
Praise, ye birds, among the bowers.

3 Praise the Lord, and may His blessing
Guide us in the way of truth,
Keep our feet from paths of error,
Make us holy in our youth.

Anon.

18 HOLLEY. 7s.

My strength is made perfect in weakness.

HEWS.

1. Lord! we come be - fore Thee now; At Thy feet we hum - bly bow;

The first system of musical notation for 'HOLLEY' consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat) and a 4/4 time signature. The lower staff is in bass clef with the same key signature and time signature. The lyrics are written below the upper staff.

Oh! do not our suit dis - dain; Shall we seek Thee, Lord, in vain?

The second system of musical notation for 'HOLLEY' consists of two staves, continuing the melody and accompaniment from the first system. The lyrics are written below the upper staff.

- 2 Lord! on Thee our souls depend,
In compassion, now descend;
Fill our hearts with Thy rich grace,
Tune our lips to sing Thy praise.
- 3 In Thine own appointed way,
Now we seek Thee, here we stay;
Lord! we know not how to go,
Till a blessing Thou bestow.
- 4 Send some message, from Thy word,
That may joy and peace afford;
Let Thy spirit now impart
Full salvation to each heart.

Rev. Wm. Hammond.

Acts 10 : 33.

- 1 Stealing from the world away,
We are come to seek Thy face;
Kindly meet us, Lord, we pray,
Grant us Thy reviving grace.
- 2 Yonder stars that gild the sky
Shine but with a borrowed light;
We, unless Thy light be nigh,
Wander, wrapt in gloomy night.
- 3 Warm our hearts in prayer and praise,
Lift our every thought above;
Hear the grateful songs we raise,
Fill us with Thy perfect love.

Rev. Ray Palmer.

20 NATURE. 7s.

Morning Hymn.

SWEDISH.

1. Now the shades of night are gone, Now the morn-ing light is come;

Lord, may we be Thine to-day, Drive the shades of sin a-way.

2 Fill our souls with heavenly light,
Banish doubt, and clear our sight;
In Thy service, Lord, to-day,
May we stand and watch and pray.

2 In our sickness and our health,
In our want, or in our wealth,
If we look to God in prayer,
God is present everywhere.

3 When our work of life is past,
Oh, receive us then at last;
Night and sin will be no more,
When we reach the heavenly shore.
Occum.

3 When our earthly comforts fail,
When the foes of life prevail,
'Tis the time for earnest prayer;
God is present everywhere.

Eph. vi: 18.

1 They who seek the throne of grace
Find that throne in every place;
If we live a life of prayer,
God is present everywhere.

4 Then, my soul, in every strait,
To thy Father, come and wait;
He will answer every prayer:
God is present everywhere.

Sav - iour Di - vine! Now hear me while I pray, Take all my guilt a - way, Oh, let me from this day Be whol - ly Thine!

2 May Thy rich grace impart
Strength to my fainting heart,
My zeal inspire;
As Thou hast died for me,
Oh may my love to Thee,
Pure, warm, and changeless be,
A living fire!

3 While life's dark maze I tread,
And griefs around me spread,
Be Thou my Guide;

Bid darkness turn to day,
Wipe sorrow's tears away,
Nor let me ever stray
From Thee aside!

3 When ends life's transient dream,
When death's cold, sullen stream
Shall o'er me roll,
Blest Saviour, then, in love,
Fear and distrust remove;
Oh bear me safe above,
A ransomed soul!

Morning Hymn.

1 God of the morning ray,
 God of the rising day,
 Glorious in power!
 In Thee we live and move,
 And thus we daily prove
 Thy condescending love
 Each passing hour.

2 God of our feeble race,
 God of redeeming grace,
 Spirit all-blest!
 Our own eternal Friend,
 Thy guardian influence lend,
 From every snare defend—
 In Thee we rest.

He grants the soul a - gain A sea - son of clear shin - ing, To cheer it af - ter rain.

- 2 In holy contemplation,
 We sweetly then pursue
 The theme of God's salvation,
 And find it ever new.
 Set free from present sorrow,
 We cheerfully can say,
 "E'en let the unknown 'morrow
 Bring with it what it may!
- 3 "It can bring with it nothing
 But He will bear us through;
 Who gives the lilies clothing
 Will clothe His people, too;

Beneath the spreading heavens
 No creature but is fed,
 And He who feeds the ravens
 Will give His children bread.

- 4 "Though vine nor fig-tree neither
 Their wonted fruit shall bear;
 Though all the field should wither,
 Nor flocks nor herds be there;
 Yet God the same abiding,
 His praise shall tune my voice,
 For while in Him confiding,
 I cannot but rejoice."

1. For thee, O dear, dear coun - try, Mine eyes their vig - ils keep;

For ver - y love, be - hold - ing Thy hap - py name, they weep.

Thou hast no shore, fair o - cean! Thou hast no time, bright day!

Dear foun - tain of re - fresh - ment To pil - grims far a - way.

2 There is the throne of David;
 And there, from care released,
 The shout of them that triumph,
 The song of them that feast.
 And they who with their Leader
 Have conquered in the fight,
 Forever and forever
 Are clad in robes of white.

3 They stand, those halls of Sion,
 All jubilant with song;
 And bright with many an angel,
 And all the martyr throng.

O sweet and blessed country,
 Shall I e'er see thy face?

O sweet and blessed country,
 Shall I e'er win thy grace?

4 E'en now, by faith, I see thee!
 E'en now thy walls discern!
 To thee my thoughts are kindled,
 And strive, and pant, and yearn.

Jerusalem! exulting
 On that securest shore,
 I hope thee, wish thee, sing thee,
 And love thee evermore!

and the shad - ows flee; Fair - er than morn - ing, love - lier than the day - light

Dawns the sweet con - scious - ness, I am with Thee.

- 2 Alone with Thee, amid the mystic shadows,
The solemn hush of nature newly born;
Alone with Thee, in breathless adoration,
In the calm dew and freshness of the morn.
- 3 When sinks the soul, subdued by toil, to slumber,
Its closing eye looks up to Thee in prayer;
Sweet the repose beneath Thy wings o'ershading,
But sweeter still to wake and find Thee there.
- 4 So shall it be at last, in that bright morning
When the soul waketh and life's shadows flee:
Oh, in that hour, fairer than daylight dawning,
Shall rise the glorious thought, I am with Thee.

- 2 Far, far beneath, the noise of tempests dieth,
 And silver waves chime ever peacefully;
 And no rude storm, how fierce soe'er it fieth,
 Disturbs the sabbath of that deeper sea.
- 3 So to the heart that knows Thy love, O Pures!
 There is a temple, sacred evermore;
 And all the Babel of life's angry voices
 Dies in hushed stillness at its peaceful door.
- 4 Far, far away, the roar of passion dieth,
 And loving thoughts rise calm and peacefully;
 And no rude storm, how fierce soe'er it fieth,
 Disturbs the soul that dwells, O Lord, in Thee.

29 BEETHOVEN. L. M.

God with us.

BEETHOVEN.

1. O God, whose pres-ence glows in all With-in, a - round us, and a - bove!

Thy word we bless, Thy name we call, Whose word is Truth, whose name is Love.

2 That truth be with the heart believed
Of all who seek this sacred place;
With power proclaimed, in peace received,—
Our spirit's light, Thy Spirit's grace.

3 That love its holy influence pour,
To keep us meek and make us free,
And throw its binding blessing more
Round each with all, and all with Thee.

4 Send down its angel to our side;
Send in its calm upon the breast:
For we would know no other guide,
And we can need no other rest.

Rev. N. L. Frothingham.

Teacher's Prayer.

1 O Thou who sendest sun and rain
On wilderness and peopled plain!
Shed Thou Thy grace on heart and tongue,
And bless our teaching of the young.

2 We ask for no reward of praise,
No mere success in outward ways;
But may we, Lord, successful be
In leading these young souls to Thee.

3 Grant Thou our hands the seeds to sow
Which to eternal life shall grow:
Without Thine aid our toil must fail,
But with it, Lord, we shall prevail.

Anon.

Morning Sacrifice.

HATTON.

The first system of musical notation consists of a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. The treble staff contains the vocal line with lyrics underneath. The bass staff contains the piano accompaniment. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is 2/2. The music is in a simple, hymn-like style.

1. A - wake, my soul, and with the sun Thy dai - ly stage of du - ty run;

The second system of musical notation continues the piece. It features the same treble and bass clef staves. The vocal line concludes with a final cadence. The piano accompaniment provides a steady harmonic support.

Shake off dull sloth, and joy - ful rise To pay thy morn - ing sac - ri - fice.

2 Glory to Thee, who safe hast kept,
And hast refreshed me while I slept;
Grant, Lord, when I from death shall wake,
I may of endless life partake.

3 Lord, I my vows to Thee renew:
Scatter my sins as morning dew,
Guard my first springs of thought and will,
And with Thyself my spirit fill.

4 Direct, control, suggest, this day,
All I design, or do, or say;
That all my powers, with all their might,
In Thy sole glory may unite.

Bishop Thos. Ken.

32 God's mercies innumerable.

1 This curious frame, these noble powers,
To Thy creating hand I owe:
Thy providence preserves me safe,
And crowns my every wish below.

2 The various and exhaustless theme
Each rising morn my soul pursues,
In fervent prayer ascends to Thee,
And still her grateful song renews.

3 Thy mercies, Lord, through endless years,
Shall still my raptured powers employ;
Yet endless years will still but swell
My wonder, gratitude, and joy.

Omnipotence.

From LOUIS SPOHR.

ALTO (Boys).

1. Je - ho - vah! God! Thy gra - cious power On ev - 'ry hand we see;

Oh, may the bless - ings of each hour Lead all our thoughts to Thee!

2 If, on the wings of morn, we speed
To earth's remotest bound,
Thy right hand will our footsteps lead,
Thine arm our path surround.

3 Thy power is in the ocean deeps,
And reaches to the skies;
Thine eye of mercy never sleeps,
Thy goodness never dies.

4 In all the varying scenes of time,
On Thee our hopes depend;
In every age, in every clime,
Our Father and our Friend.

Rev. Isaac Watts.

34

Reconciliation.

1 Come, let us lift our joyful eyes
Up to the courts above,
And smile to see our Father there,
Upon a throne of love.

2 The peaceful gates of heavenly bliss
Are opened by the Son;
High let us raise our notes of praise,
And reach the almighty throne.

3 To Thee ten thousand thanks we bring,
Great Advocate on high;
And glory to th' eternal King,
Who lays His anger by.

Rev. Isaac Watts.

35 BEATITUDO. C. M.

The One Petition.

DYKES.

1. Fa-ther, what-e'er of earth-ly bliss Thy sov-reign Hand de-nies,

Ac-cept-ed at Thy throne of grace, Let this pe-ti-tion rise:—

2 "Give me a calm, a thankful heart,
From every murmur free;
The blessings of Thy grace impart,
And make me live to Thee.

2 Come as the light: to us reveal
Our sinfulness and woe;
And lead us in those paths of life
Where all the righteous go.

3 "Let the sweet hope that Thou art mine
My life and death attend;
Thy presence through my journey shine,
And crown my journey's end."

Anna Steele.

3 Come as the dew, and sweetly bless
This consecrated hour,
Till every barren place shall own
With joy, Thy quickening power.

36 Revelations of the Spirit.

1 Spirit Divine, attend our prayer,
And make our hearts Thy home;
Descend with all Thy gracious power:
Come, Holy Spirit, come!

4 Come as the wind, with rushing sound,
With Pentecostal grace;
And make the great salvation known
Wide as the human race.

Heavenly Joy on Earth.

HAYDN.

ALTO (BOYS).

1. Come, we that love the Lord, And let our joys be known;

Join in a song with sweet ac - cord, And thus sur - round the throne.

- 2 The sorrows of the mind
Be banished from the place;
Religion never was designed
To make our pleasures less.
- 3 The men of grace have found
Glory begun below :.
Celestial fruits, on earthly ground,
From faith and hope may grow.
- 4 Then let our songs abound,
And every tear be dry;
We're marching through Immanuel's ground,
To fairer worlds on high.

Rev. Isaac Watts.

38 Heaven everywhere.

- 1 Our heaven is everywhere,
If we but love the Lord,
Unswerving tread the narrow way,
And ever shun the broad.
- 2 'Tis where the trusting heart
Bows meekly to its grief,
Still looking up with earnest faith
For comfort and relief.
- 3 Wherever truth abides,
Sweet peace is ever there;
If we but love and serve the Lord,
Our heaven is everywhere.

1. If through un - ruf - fled seas Toward heav'n we calm - ly sail,

With grate - ful hearts, O God, to Thee, We'll own the fos - t'ringale.

2 But should the surges rise,
And rest delay to come,
Blest be the sorrow, kind the storm,
Which drives us nearer home.

3 Soon shall our doubts and fears
All yield to Thy control;
Thy tender mercies shall illumine
The midnight of the soul.

He works in us.

- 1 'Tis God the Spirit leads
In paths before unknown;
The work to be performed is ours;
The strength is all His own.
- 2 Supported by His grace,
We still pursue our way;
And hope at last to reach the prize,
Secure in endless day.

Praise to Jehovah.

MENDELSSOHN.

1. Praise to Thee, Thou great Cre - a - tor! Praise to Thee from ev - 'ry tongue;

Join, my soul, with ev - 'ry crea-ture, Join the u - ni - ver - sal song.

- 2 Father, Source of all compassion,
Pure, unbounded grace is Thine;
Hail the God of our salvation!
Praise Him for His love divine.
- 3 For ten thousand blessings given,
For the hope of future joy,
Sound His praise through earth and
heaven,
Sound Jehovah's praise on high.
- 4 Joyfully on earth adore Him,
Till in heaven our song we raise;
There, enraptured, fall before Him,
Lost in wonder, love, and praise.

Rev. John Fawcett.

42 Anniversary Hymn.

- 1 Lord, we come to seek Thy blessing,
Objects of Thy tender care;
Every good on earth possessing,
If Thy favor we but share.
- 2 Nature speaks, in all her beauty,
Of the hand that fashioned her;
So must we, by love and duty,
All our gifts to Thee refer.
- 3 On this joyful, blest occasion,
We our hearts would lift to Thee;
Catch the tones of soft persuasion,—
Happy, true, and thoughtful be.

Psalm 18: 35.

D. E. JONES.

1. Gen - tly, Lord, oh, gen - tly lead us Thro' this lone - ly vale of tears ;

Thro' the chang - es Thou' st de - creed us, Till our last great change ap - pears.

2 When temptation's darts assail us,
When in devious paths we stray,
Let Thy goodness never fail us,
Lead us in Thy perfect way.

3 In the hour of pain and anguish,
In the hour when death draws near,
Suffer not our hearts to languish —
Suffer not our souls to fear.

4 And, when mortal life is ended,
Bid us on Thy bosom rest,
Till, by angel-bands attended,
We awake among the blest.

Cliffs where tumbling seas have roared !
Wave advancing, wave retreating,
Praise ye, praise ye God the Lord !

44 Universal Adoration.

1 Angels holy, high and lowly,
Sing the praises of the Lord !
Earth and sky, all living nature,
Praise ye, praise ye God the Lord !

4 Praise Him ever, bounteous Giver,
Praise Him, Father, Friend, and Lord !
Each glad soul its free course winging,
Praise the great and mighty Lord !

Whom have I in heaven but Thee?

GARRETT.

ALTO (BOYS).

1. Lord of earth! Thy form-ing hand Well this beau-teous frame hath planned.

Woods that wave, and hills that tower, O-cean roll - ing in His power:

2 Yet, amid this scene so fair,
Should I cease Thy smile to share,
What were all its joys to me?
Whom have I on earth but Thee?

3 Lord of heaven! beyond our sight
Shines a world of purer light;
There, in love's unclouded reign,
Parted hands shall meet again.

4 Oh, that world is passing fair!
Yet, if Thou wert absent there,
What were all its joys to me?
Whom have I in heaven but Thee?

Sir Robert Grant.

Trust in God.

- 1 We would leave, O God! to Thee
Every anxious care and fear:
Thou the troubled thought canst see,
Thou canst dry the bitter tear.
- 2 Thou dost care for us, we know,—
Care with all a Father's love;
Thou canst make each earthly woe
Work to higher bliss above.
- 3 On this faith we fain would rest:
Strengthen Thou its blessed power;
Steadfast keep it in our breast,
Through each dark and trying hour.

1. Gone are those great and good Who here, in per - il, stood And raised their hymn. Peace to the rev-'rend dead! The light that on their head The pass - ing years have shed Shall ne'er grow dim.

2 Ye temples, that to God
Rise where our fathers trod,
Guard well your trust,—
The faith that dared the sea,
The truth that made them free,
Their cherished purity,
Their garnered dust.

3 Thou high and holy One,
Whose care for sire and son
All nature fills,—
While day shall break and close,
While night her crescent shows,
Oh, let Thy light repose

Our Country.

1 God bless our native land!
Firm may she ever stand,
Through storm and night.
When the wild tempests rave,
Ruler of winds and wave,
Do Thou our country save
By Thy great might.

To God above the skies;
On Him we wait.
Thou who art ever nigh,
Guarding with watchful eye,
To Thee aloud we cry,
God save the state!

53 HYMN OF JOY. 7s & 6s.

Aspirations.

BEETHOVEN.

1. Rise, my soul, and stretch thy wings, Thy bet-ter por-tion trace; Rise from tran-si-tory things Toward heav'n, thy native place. Sun and moon and stars decay, Time shall soon this earth re-move; Rise, my soul, and haste a - way To seats pre - pared a - bove.

2 Rivers to the ocean run,
Nor stay in all their course;
Fire, ascending, seeks the sun —
Both speed them to their source.
So a soul that's born of God,
Pants to view His glorious face,
Upward tends to His abode,
To rest in His embrace.

3 Fly me, riches! fly me, cares!
While I that coast explore;
Flattering world! with all thy snares,
Solicit me no more.
Pilgrims fix not here their home;
Strangers tarry but a night;
When the last dear morn is come,
They'll rise to joyful light.

Rev. John Cennick.

Light for All.

Music: "Homeland," page 39.

1 The light pours down from heaven,
And enters where it may;
The eyes of all earth's children
Are cheered with one bright day.
So let the mind's true sunshine
Be spread o'er earth as free,
And fill men's waiting spirits,
As the waters fill the sea.

2 Then let each human spirit
Enjoy the vision bright;
The truth which comes from heaven
Shall spread like heaven's own light;
Till earth becomes God's temple,
And every human heart
Shall join in one great service,
Each happy in his part.

55 HOMELAND. 7s & 6s.

Rev. 21: 4.

SULLIVAN.

1. The Homeland! O, the Homeland! the land of the free-born! No gloomy night is known there, but aye the fade-less morn. I'm sigh-ing for that coun - try; my heart is ach-ing here: There is no pain in the Homeland, to which I'm drawing near.

2 My Lord is in the Homeland, with angels bright and fair;
 No sinful thing nor evil can ever enter there.
 The music of the ransomed is ringing in my ears;
 And, when I think of the Homeland, my eyes are wet with tears.

3 For loved ones in the Homeland are waiting me to come,
 Where neither death nor sorrow invade their holy home.
 O dear, dear Native Country! O rest and peace above!
 Christ bring us all to the Homeland of His eternal love.

hush-ing ev-ry fear; Spok-en thro' the si-lence by our Fa-ther's voice,

REFRAIN.

Ten-der, strong, and faith-ful, mak-ing us re-joice. On-ward then, and fear not, chil-dren of the day! For His word shall nev-er, nev-er pass a-way!

2 For the year before us, oh, what rich supplies!
 For the poor and needy living streams shall rise;
 For the sad and sinful shall His grace abound;
 For the faint and feeble perfect strength be found. REFRAIN.

3 He will never fail us, He will not forsake;
 His eternal covenant He will never break.
 Resting on His promise, what have we to fear?
 God is all-sufficient for the coming year. REFRAIN.

We know Thee truly but in this,—
That Thou bestowest all our good.

3 And so, 'mid boundless time and space,
Oh, grant us still in Thee to dwell,
And through the ceaseless web to trace
Thy presence working all things well!

4 Bestow on every joyous thrill
A deeper tone of reverent awe;
Make pure Thy children's erring will,
And teach their hearts to love Thy law.

God in all.

1 There's nothing bright, above, below,
From flowers that bloom to stars that glow,
But in its light my soul can see
Some feature of the Deity.

2 There's nothing dark, below, above,
But in its gloom I trace Thy love,
And meekly wait the moment when
Thy touch shall make all bright again.

4 The heavens, the earth, where'er I look,
Shall be one pure and shining book,
Where I may read, in words of flame,
The glories of Thy wondrous name.

67 MERRIAL. 6. 5.

Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel.

BARNBY.

ALTO (BOYS).

1. Faith - ful Shep - herd, feed me In the pas - tures green;

The first system of the musical score for 'MERRIAL' consists of three staves. The top staff is for the Alto (Boys) voice, the middle staff is for the piano accompaniment, and the bottom staff is for the bass line. The music is in 4/4 time with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The lyrics are: '1. Faith - ful Shep - herd, feed me In the pas - tures green;'.

Faith - ful Shep - herd, lead me Where Thy steps are seen.

The second system of the musical score continues the piece. It also consists of three staves (Alto, Piano, Bass) in the same key and time signature. The lyrics are: 'Faith - ful Shep - herd, lead me Where Thy steps are seen.'

2 Hold me fast and guide me
In the narrow way;
So, with Thee beside me,
I shall never stray.

3 Daily bring me nearer
To Thy heavenly shore;
May my faith grow clearer;
May I love Thee more.

4 Day by day prepare me
As Thou seest best;
Then let angels bear me
To Thy promised rest.

Over all victorious,
In its bright increase.
- 2 Stayed upon Jehovah,
Hearts are fully blest,
Finding, as He promised,
Perfect peace and rest.
- 3 We may trust Him solely
All for us to do;
They who trust Him wholly Find Him wholly true.

Early in the morning will I direct my prayer to Thee.— Psalm 92.

BOWDLER.

1. Sweet is the work, my God, my King, To praise Thy name, give thanks, and sing;

To show Thy love by morn-ing light, And talk of all Thy truth at night.

2 My heart shall triumph in my Lord,
 And bless His works and bless His word;
 Thy works of grace, how bright they shine!
 How deep Thy counsels! how divine!

3 Lord, I shall share a glorious part,
 When grace hath well refined my heart,
 And fresh supplies of joy are shed,
 Like holy oil to cheer my head.

4 Soon shall I see, and hear, and know
 All I desired or wished below;
 And every power find sweet employ,
 In that eternal world of joy.

Rev. Isaac Watts.

Psalm 139: 23.

1 Great God! my Father and my Friend,
 On whom I cast my constant care,
 On whom for all things I depend!
 To Thee I raise my humble prayer.

2 Endue me with a holy fear;
 The frailty of my heart reveal;
 Sin and its snares are always near;
 Thee may I always nearer feel.

3 Search, gracious God! my inmost heart;
 From guilt and error set me free;
 Thy light, and truth, and peace, impart,
 And guide me safe to heaven and Thee.

Psalm 31.

SCHUMANN.

1. Lord, in Thy great, Thy glo-rious name, I place my hope, my on - ly trust;

Save me from sor - row, guilt, and shame, Thou ev - er gra - cious, ev - er just.

2 Thou art my Rock! Thy name alone
The fortress where my hopes retreat;
Oh, make Thy power and mercy known;
To safety guide my wandering feet.

3 Blest be the Lord, forever blest,
Whose mercy bids my fears remove;
The sacred walls which guard my rest
Are His almighty power and love.

Anna Steele.

72 Solomon's Prayer for Wisdom.

1 Almighty God, in humble prayer
To Thee our souls we lift;
Do Thou our waiting minds prepare
For Thy most needful gift.

2 We ask not golden streams of wealth
Along our path to flow;
We ask not undecaying health,
Nor length of years below.

3 We ask not honors, which an hour
May bring and take away;
We ask not pleasure, pomp, and power,
Lest we should go astray.

4 We ask for wisdom: Lord, impart
The knowledge how to live;
A wise and understanding heart
To all before Thee give.

James Montgomery.

God's Care.

ROSSINI.

1. When all Thy mercies, O my God, My rising soul surveys, Transported with the view, I'm lost In wonder, love, and praise.

2 Unnumbered comforts on my soul
 Thy tender care bestowed,
 Before my infant heart conceived
 From whom those comforts flowed.

3 Ten thousand thousand precious gifts
 My daily thanks employ;
 Nor is the least a cheerful heart,
 That tastes those gifts with joy.

3 Through every period of my life,
 Thy goodness I'll pursue;
 And after death, in distant worlds,
 The glorious theme renew.

Joseph Addison.

74 Divine Guidance Sought.

1 Oh that the Lord would guide my ways,
 To keep His statutes still!
 Oh that my God would grant me grace
 To know and do His will.

2 Order my footsteps by Thy word,
 And make my heart sincere;
 Let sin have no dominion, Lord,
 But keep my conscience clear.

3 Make me to walk in Thy commands—
 'Tis a delightful road;
 Nor let my head, nor heart, nor hands,
 Offend against my God.

Rev. Isaac Watts.

In Nature.

WALLACE.

1. Lord, when my rap-tured tho't sur-veys Cre - a - tion's beau-ties o'er,

All na - ture joins to teach Thy praise, And bid my soul a - dore.

2 Where'er I turn my gazing eyes,
Thy radiant footsteps shine;
Ten thousand pleasing wonders rise,
And speak their source divine.

3 On me Thy providence has shone
With gentle smiling rays;
Oh, let my lips and life make known
Thy goodness and Thy praise.

4 All-bounteous Lord, Thy grace impart!
Oh, teach me to improve
Thy gifts with humble, grateful heart,
And crown them with Thy love.

Anna Steele.

We hear Thy breath in every storm,
For all the winds are Thine.

2 Wide as they sweep their sounding way
They work Thy sovereign will;
And, awed by Thy majestic voice,
Confusion shall be still.

3 Thy mercy tempers every blast
To them that seek Thy face,
And mingles with the tempest's roar
The whispers of Thy grace.

4 Those gentle whispers let me hear,
Till all the tumult cease;
And gales of Paradise shall lull
My weary soul to peace.

Rev. P. Doddridge.

76 In the Winds.—Isaiah 27: 8.

1 Great Ruler of all nature's frame!
We own Thy power divine;

God is love, and love alone.

GLÜCK.

1. Lord and Fa-ther, great and ho-ly, Fear-ing naught, we come to Thee;

Fear-ing naught, tho' weak and low-ly, For Thy love has made us free, . . . For Thy love has made us free.

- 2 By the blue sky bending o'er us,
By the green earth's flowery zone,
Teach us, Lord, the angel chorus,
"Thou art love and love alone."
- 3 Tho' the worlds in flame should perish,
Suns and stars in ruin fall,
Trust in Thee our hearts should cherish,
Thou to us be all in all.
- 4 And though heavens Thy name are praising,
Seraphs hymn no sweeter tone
Than the strain our hearts are raising,—
"Thou art love and love alone."

Rev. F. W. Farrar.

- Bliss He wakes, and woe He lightens;
God is wisdom, God is love.
- 2 Chance and change are busy ever;
Man decays, and ages move;
But His mercy waneth never;
God is wisdom, God is love.
- 3 Ev'n the hour that darkest seemeth,
Will His changeless goodness prove:
From the gloom His brightness streameth;
God is wisdom, God is love.
- 4 He with earthly cares entwineth
Hope and comfort from above;
Everywhere His glory shineth;
God is wisdom, God is love.

Sir John Bowring.

All the path in which we rove;

Self-Denial.

FLOTOW.

1. Pil-grims in this vale of sor-row, Press-ing on-ward toward the prize,

Strength and com-fort here we bor-row From the Hand that rules the skies.

- 2 'Mid these scenes of self-denial
We are called the race to run;
We must meet full many a trial
Ere the victor's crown is won.
- 3 Love shall every conflict lighten,
Hope shall urge us swifter on,
Faith shall every prospect brighten,
Till the morn of heaven shall dawn.
- 4 On the Eternal arm reclining,
We at length shall win the day;
All the powers of earth combining
Shall not snatch our crown away.
Thomas Hastings.

Grace.

- 1 Lord, with glowing heart I'd praise
Thee
For the bliss Thy love bestows;
For the pardoning grace that saves me,
And the peace that from it flows.
- 2 Help, O God, my weak endeavor;
This dull soul to rapture raise;
Thou must light the flame, or never
Can my love be warmed to praise.
- 3 Let Thy grace, my soul's chief treasure,
Love's pure flame within me raise;
And, since words can never measure,
Let my life show forth Thy praise.
Francis Scott Key.

Now my fail - ing will re - store, Fix the pur - pose of my heart.

2 Ere another step I take
 In my wilful, wandering way,
 Still I have a choice to make ;
 Oh, decide my will to-day !

3 Patient love is waiting still
 In my Father's heart to me,
 Love to bend my froward will,
 Love to make me really free.

4 Father, fast the moments flee ;
 Oh, decide my will to-day !
 Bind my heart to follow Thee,
 Ere the song has died away.

Keep me, Lord.

1 Gracious Spirit, Love divine!
 Let Thy light within me shine ;
 All my guilty fears remove ;
 Fill me with Thy heavenly love.

2 Life and peace to me impart,
 Seal salvation on my heart ;
 Breathe Thyself into my breast,
 Earnest of immortal rest.

3 Let me never from Thee stray,
 Keep me in the narrow way ;
 Fill my soul with joy divine,
 Keep me, Lord, forever Thine.

Be not rash with thy mouth.

- 1 When we in holy worship,
Would to our God draw near,
Let us rejoice with trembling,
And serve the Lord in fear.
His eye is resting on us
When most we feel alone ;
He notices each gesture,
Each word, and look, and tone.
- 2 He hears when for a blessing
Upon our knees we pray,
If we, indeed are thankful,
Or think not what we say.
Oh Holy Lord, Almighty,
Thou biddest us draw near,
As Thine own sons and daughters,
Yet with all holy fear.

O Lord, the same as now, To end - less gen - e - ra - tions The ev - er - last - ing Thou!

 O'er sunny hills that fly,
 Or grasses in the meadows
 That blossom but to die;
 A sleep, a dream, a story,
 By strangers quickly told,
 An unremaining glory
 Of things that soon are told.
- 3 O Thou, who canst not slumber,
 Whose light grows never pale,
 Teach us aright to number
 Our years before they fail.
 On us Thy mercy lighten,
 On us Thy goodness rest;
 And let Thy spirit brighten
 The hearts Thyself hath blessed.

Reunion in Heaven.

- 1 No seas again shall sever,
 No desert intervene,
 No deep sad-flowing river
 Shall roll its tide between.
 Love and unsevered union
 Of soul with those we love,
 Nearness and glad communion,
 Shall be our joy above.
- 2 No dread of wasting sickness,
 No thought of ache or pain,
 No fretting hours of weakness,
 Shall mar our peace again.
 No death, our homes o'ershading,
 Shall e'er our harps unstring;
 For all is life unfading
 In presence of our King.

My voice shalt Thou hear in the morning.

BULLINGER.

1. The morn-ing, the bright and the beau-ti-ful morn-ing Is up, and the sun-shine is all on the wing; With its first flush of glad-ness the land-scape a-dorn-ing, A glad-ness which noth-ing but morn-ing can bring.

2 The earth is awaking: the sky and the ocean,
 The river and forest, the mountain and plain;
 The city is stirring its living commotion;
 The pulse of the world is reviving again.

3 But ere to our labors and duties returning
 We hasten to give Him the praise that is meet;
 In solemn devotion the first hours of morning,
 Our freest and freshest, we lay at His feet.

Lead, Kindly Light.

DYKES.

1. Lead, kindly Light, amid th'encircling gloom, Lead Thou me on: The night is dark, and I am far from home, Lead Thou me on. Keep Thou my feet: I no not ask to see . . . The dis - tant scene,—one step e-nough for me.

2 I was not ever thus, nor prayed that Thou
Should'st lead me on:
I loved to choose and see my path; but now
Lead Thou me on.
I loved the garish day; and, spite of fears,
Pride ruled my will: remember not past years.

3 So long Thy power has blest me, sure it still Will lead me on
Through dreary doubt, through pain and sorrow, till
The night is gone.
And, with the morn, those angel faces smile,
Which I have loved long since, and lost awhile.

Cardinal J. H. Newman.

I will fear no evil.

Arr. from DONIZETTI.

1. The Lord my past-ure shall pre - pare, And feed me with a shep-herd's care;

His presence shall my wants sup - ply, And guard me with a watch - ful eye;

My noonday walks He shall at - tend, And all my mid-night hours de-fend.

2 When in the sultry glebe I faint,
Or on the thirsty mountain pant,
To fertile vales, and dewy meads,
My weary, wandering steps He leads;
Where peaceful rivers, soft and slow,
Amid the verdant landscape flow.

3 Though in the paths of death I tread,
With gloomy horrors overspread,
My steadfast heart shall fear no ill,
For Thou, O Lord, art with me still;
Thy friendly rod shall give me aid,
And guide me thro' the dreadful shade.

Joseph Addison.

Spiritual Needs.

1 I want the spirit of power within,
Of love and of a healthful mind,
Of power to conquer every sin,
Of love to God and all mankind;
Of health that pain and death defies,
Most vigorous when the body dies.

2 Oh, that the Comforter would come,
Nor visit as a transient guest,
But fix in me His constant home,
And keep possession of my breast;
And make my soul His loved abode,
The temple of indwelling God!

Rev. Charles Wesley.

The Light, the Way, the Truth.

MENDELSSOHN.

1. O Light, whose beams il - lu - mine all, From twi - light dawn to per - fect day,
Shine Thou be - fore the shad - ows fall, That lead our wan - d'ring feet a - stray;
That youth . . . may love, and age a - dore.
At morn and eve Thy radiance pour, That youth may love, and age . . . a - dore.

2 O Way, thro' whom our souls draw near
To yon eternal home of peace,
Where perfect love shall cast out fear,
And earth's vain toil and wand'ring cease;
In strength or weakness may we see
Our heavenly path, O Lord, thro' Thee.

3 O Truth, before whose shrine we bow,
Thou priceless pearl for all who seek,
To Thee our earliest strength we vow;
Thy love will bless the pure and meek.
When dreams or mist beguile our sight,
Turn Thou our darkness into light.

Rev. E. H. Plumptre.

Peace, Troubled Soul.

1 Peace, troubled soul! Thou need'st not fear;
Thy great Protector still is near.
He who has fed, will feed thee still;
Be calm, and sink into His will.
Who hears the ravens when they cry
Will all His children's needs supply.

2 Peace, doubting heart; distrust not God.
Though dark the valley, steep the way,
Still lean upon His staff and rod,
Still make His providence thy stay:
A sudden calm thy soul shall fill,—
'Tis God who whispers, Peace; be still.

1. While Thee I seek, pro-te-ct-ing Power! Be my vain wishes stilled; And may this con-secra-ted hour With bet-ter hopes be filled! Thy love the power of tho't be'stow'd; To Thee my tho'ts would soar. Thy mer-cy o'er my life has flow'd; That mercy I a-dore.

2 In each event of life, how clear
Thy ruling hand I see!
Each blessing to my soul more dear
Because conferred by Thee.
In every joy that crowns my days,
In every pain I bear,
My heart shall find delight in praise,
Or seek relief in prayer.

3 When gladness wings my favored hour,
Thy love my thoughts fulfil;
Resigned, when storms of sorrow lower,
My soul shall meet Thy will.
My lifted eye, without a tear,
The gathering storm shall see.
My steadfast heart shall know no fear;
That heart will rest on Thee.

Ecc. 12: 1.

1 Remember thy Creator now,
In these thy youthful days;
He will accept thine earliest vow,
And listen to thy praise.
Remember thy Creator now,
Seek Him while He is near;
For evil days will come, when thou
Shalt find no comfort here.

2 Remember thy Creator now;
His willing servant be:
Then, when thy head in death shall bow,
He will remember thee.
Almighty God! our hearts incline
Thy heavenly voice to hear;
Let all our future days be Thine,
Devoted to Thy fear.

Perfect us in Love.

I. E.

Dolce.

1. Try us, O God, and search the ground Of ev - 'ry sin - ful heart:

What - e'er of sin in us is found, Oh, bid it all de - part.

2 Help us to help each other, Lord,
Each other's cross to bear;
Let each his friendly aid afford,
And feel his brother's care.

3 Help us to build each other up,
Our heart and life improve;
Increase our faith, confirm our hope,
And perfect us in love.

4 Up into Thee, our living Head,
Let us in all things grow,
Till Thou hast made us free, indeed,
And spotless here below.

Rev. Charles Wesley.

And he who would the Father seek,
Must seek Him, Lord, by Thee.

2 Thou art the Truth: Thy word alone
True wisdom can impart;
Thou only canst instruct the mind,
And purify the heart.

3 Thou art the Life: the rending tomb
Proclaims Thy conquering arm;
And those who put their trust in Thee
Nor death nor ought shall harm.

4 Thou art the Way, the Truth, the Life:
Grant us to know that Way;
That Truth to keep, that Life to win,
Which leads to endless day.

Bishop Geo. W. Doane.

COOPER.

ALTO (BOYS).

1. I read of "man-y mansions" Within the House Divine; I need not go to find them, For one of them is mine. God lives in mine and loves me; Who else could bring the day? Who spreads the sleep up - on me? Who gives me hands to play?

2 And when I say "Our Father,"
It seems so far to pray,
To think of heaven up yonder,
I can but turn and say:
"Dear Father, close beside me,
I feel you dimly near,
In every face that loves me,
In each kind word I hear."

3 He's the touch of mother's fingers,
So full of love and care;
He's the pleasantness of trying,
The help inside of prayer.
I do not understand it,
But so it seems to be;
There always is that other,
Whom I but dimly see.

Evermore rejoice together,
Crowned with diadems of light;
And from peril safe at last
Reckon up their triumphs past.

4 There in strains harmonious blending,
They their dulcet anthems sing,
And on harps divinely thrilling,
Glorify their glorious King
Aided by those arms of might,
They were victors in the fight.

5 Happy they, who with them seated
Shall in all their glory share!
O that we, our days completed,

There with them the praise to sing

STRATTNER.

1. In the morn-ing I will pray For God's bless-ing on the day;

The first system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of three sharps (F#, C#, G#) and a 4/4 time signature. The lower staff is in bass clef with the same key signature and time signature. The melody is written in the upper staff, and the accompaniment is in the lower staff.

What this day shall be my lot, Light or dark-ness, know I not.

The second system of musical notation also consists of two staves in the same key signature and time signature as the first system. The melody continues in the upper staff, and the accompaniment continues in the lower staff.

- 2 Should it be with clouds o'ercast,
Clouds of sorrow, gathering fast,
Thou, who givest light divine,
Shine within me, Lord, oh shine!
- 3 Show me, if I tempted be,
How to find all strength in Thee,
And a perfect triumph win
Over every bosom sin.
- 4 Keep my feet from secret snares,
Keep mine eyes, O God, from tears!
Every step Thy love attend,
And my soul from death defend!

Praise.

- 1 Thou who art enthroned above,
Thou in whom we live and move,
Thou who art most great, most high,
God from all eternity.
- 2 Oh, how sweet, how excellent
When all tongues and hearts consent,
Grateful hearts and joyful tongues,
Hymning Thee in tuneful songs!
- 3 When the morning paints the skies,
When the stars of evening rise,
We Thy praises will record,
Sovereign Ruler, mighty Lord!

1. God of mer - cy, God of grace! Show the brightness of Thy face:

{ Shine up - on us, Father! shine; Fill us with Thy light di - vine.
{ And Thy sav - ing health ex - tend To the earth's re - - - motest end.

2 Let the people praise Thee, Lord!
Be by all that live adored.
Let the nations shout and sing
Glory to their Saviour King;
At Thy feet their tribute pay,
And Thy holy will obey.

3 Let the people praise Thee, Lord!
Earth shall then her fruits afford;
God to man His blessings give;
Man to God devoted live;
All below, and all above,
One in joy, and light, and love.

Henry Francis Lyte.

104 "Oh, give thanks unto the Lord!"

1 Oh, give thanks to Him who made
Morning light and evening shade!
Source and Giver of all good,
Nightly sleep and daily food!
Quickener of our wearied powers,
Guard of our unconscious hours!

2 Oh, give thanks to nature's King,
Who made every breathing thing!
His our warm and sentient frame;
His the mind's immortal flame;
Oh, how close the ties that bind
Spirits to the Eternal Mind!

Giving the Heart.

CARTER.

1. Take my heart, O Fa-ther, take it! Make and keep it all Thine own;

Let Thy spir - it melt and break it, This proud heart of sin and stone.

- 2 Father, make it pure and lowly,
Fond of peace, and far from strife;
Turning from the paths unholy
Of this vain and sinful life.
- 3 Ever let Thy grace surround it;
Strengthen it with power divine,
Till Thy cords of love have bound it:
Make it to be wholly Thine.
- 4 May the blood of Jesus heal it,
And its sins be all forgiven;
Holy Spirit, take and seal it,
Guide it in the path to heaven.

Anon.

106 The Prayer of Life.

- 1 Father, hear the prayer we offer:
Not for ease that prayer shall be;
But for strength, that we may ever
Live our lives courageously.
- 2 Not for ever in green pastures
Do we ask our way to be,
But the steep and rugged pathway
May we tread rejoicingly.
- 4 Be our strength in hours of weakness;
In our wanderings, be our guide;
Through endeavor, failure, danger,
Father, be Thou at our side!

"Hymns of the Spirit."

Psalm of Life.

CONKEY.

1. Tell me not in mournful num-bers, Life is but an emp - ty dream;

For the soul is dead that slum-bers, And things are not what they seem.

- 2 Life is real, life is earnest,
And the grave is not its goal:
Dust thou art, to dust returnest,
Was not spoken of the soul.
- 3 Not enjoyment, and not sorrow,
Is our destined end and way;
But to act, that each to-morrow
Find us further than today.
- 4 Trust no future, howe'er pleasant;
Let the dead Past bury its dead:
Act, act in the living Present,
Heart within and God o'erhead.
- 5 Let us, then, be up and doing,
With a heart for any fate;
Still achieving, still pursuing,
Learn to labor and to wait.

Henry Wadsworth Longfellow.

108 COME UNTO ME. 7. 6. D.

He that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out. From HANDEL.

1. "Come un - to Me, ye wea - ry, And I will give you rest." Oh, bless-ed voice of Je - sus, Which comes to hearts opprest! It tells of ben - e - dic - tion, Of pardon, grace, and peace, Of joy that hath no end - ing, Of love which can - not cease,

Of joy that hath no end - ing, Of love which can - not cease.

2 "Come unto Me, ye wanderers,
And I will give you light."
Oh, loving voice of Jesus,
Which comes to cheer the night!
Our hearts were filled with sadness,
And we had lost our way,
But morning brings us gladness,
And songs the break of day.

3 "Come unto Me, ye fainting,
And I will give you life."
Oh, cheering voice of Jesus,
Which comes to aid our strife!

The foe is stern and eager,
The fight is fierce and long;
But Thou hast made us mighty,
And stronger than the strong.

4 "And whosoever cometh,
I will not cast him out."
Oh, welcome voice of Jesus,
Which drives away our doubt!
Which calls us very sinners,
Unworthy though we be,
Of love so free and boundless,
To come, dear Lord, to Thee!

The third system of musical notation. The vocal line concludes with the lyrics 'ri - zon a - dorn - ing, Guidewhere our In - fant Re - deem - er is laid.' The piano accompaniment ends with a final chord.

- 2 Cold on His cradle the dew-drops are shining,
Low lies His head with the beasts of the stall,
Angels adore Him in slumber reclining,
Chosen of God, the Redeemer of all.
- 3 Say, shall we yield him, in costly devotion,
Odors of Edom, and offerings divine?
Gems of the mountain, and pearls of the ocean,
Myrrh from the forest, or gold from the mine?
- 4 Vainly we offer each ample oblation ;
Vainly with gifts would his favors secure :
Richer by far is the heart's adoration ;
Dearer to God are the prayers of the poor.

Let us run with patience the race that is set before us. ROWTON.

1. Fa - ther, we are young and weak, Yet we have a race to run;

Glo - rious is the crown we seek, Hard the fight that must be won;

Lest we faint, and lest we flee, Keep us ev - er near to Thee.

2 Many are the foes, and strong,
 Foes without, and fears within,
 Great temptations to go wrong,
 And an evil heart of sin;
 We shall surely conquered be,
 If we keep not near to Thee.

3 When the hour of death draws near,
 Fails our trembling flesh and heart;
 Yet no evil will we fear,
 Calmly waiting to depart,

If amid the gloom we see
 That we still are near to Thee.

4 Then the prize of victory won,
 And the weary contest o'er,
 We shall hear the glad "well done"
 Greet us on the heavenly shore,
 And through all eternity,
 Ever more be near to Thee.

My heart shall gladden through the tedious day;
And 'midst the dark and gloomy shades of night,
To Thee, my God, I'll tune the grateful lay.

Thy God the God of mercy still shall prove;
Within His courts thy thanks shall yet be paid
Unquestioned be His faithfulness and love.

The Master's Touch.

- 1 In the still air the music lies unheard;
In the rough marble beauty hides unseen;
To make the music and the beauty, needs
The master's touch, the sculptor's chisel keen.
- 2 Great Master, touch us with Thy skilful hand;
Let not the music that is in us die!
Great Sculptor, hew and polish us; nor let Hidden and lost, Thy form within us lie!
- 3 Spare not the stroke! do with us as Thou wilt!
Let there be naught unfinished, broken, marred;
Complete Thy purpose, that we may become Thy perfect image, Thou our God and Lord.

My heaven in Thee.

HOPKINS.

1. Fa-ther di-vine, this dead'ning pow'r control, Which to the senses bind the immortal soul;

The first system of musical notation consists of a treble and bass staff in 4/4 time, with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The melody is written in the treble clef, and the accompaniment is in the bass clef. The lyrics are printed below the treble staff.

Oh, break this bondage, Lord ! I would be free, And in my soul would find my heav'n in Thee.

The second system of musical notation continues the piece, with the same treble and bass staves and key signature. The lyrics are printed below the treble staff.

2 My heaven in Thee! — O God! no other heaven,
To the immortal soul, can e'er be given;
Oh, let Thy kingdom now within me come,
And as above, so here, Thy will be done!

3 My heaven in Thee, O Father! let me find,—
My heaven in Thee, within a heart resigned.
No more of heaven and bliss, my soul, despair;
For where my God is found, my heaven is there.

2 My feet shall never slide,
 Nor fall in fatal snares,
 Since God, my Guard and Guide,
 Defends me from my fears;
 Those wakeful Eyes,
 That never sleep,
 Shall Israel keep
 When dangers rise.

3 No burning heats by day,
 Nor blasts of evening air,
 Shall take my health away,
 If God be with me there:

Thou art my Sun,
 And Thou my Shade,
 To guard my head
 By night or noon.

4 Hast Thou not given Thy word,
 To save my soul from death?
 And I can trust my Lord
 To keep my mortal breath:

 Nor fear to die,
 Till from on high
 Thou call me Home.

And shades of evil from its splendor flee,
Safe may we rise, this earth's dark vale forsaking,
To dwell through all with Thee.

I44 LEICESTER. C. M.

Heavenly wisdom implored.

HURST.

1. Fa - ther of light, con - duct my feet Thro' life's dark, dan - g'rous road ;

The first system of music consists of a vocal line in G major, 3/4 time, and a piano accompaniment in G major, 3/4 time. The vocal line begins with a half note G4, followed by quarter notes A4, B4, C5, and D5. The piano accompaniment features a steady bass line of G2, B1, and D2, with chords in the right hand.

Let each ad - vanc - ing step still bring Me near - er to my God.

The second system of music continues the vocal and piano parts. The vocal line has a half note G4, followed by quarter notes A4, B4, C5, and D5. The piano accompaniment continues with the same bass line and chords.

- 2 Teach me in every various scene
To keep my end in sight ;
And, while I tread life's mazy track,
Let wisdom guide me right.
- 3 That heavenly wisdom from above
Abundantly impart ;
And let it guard, and guide, and warm,
And penetrate my heart ;
- 4 Till it shall lead me to Thyself,
Fountain of bliss and love !
And all my darkness be dispersed
In endless light above.

Smart.

New Year.

- 1 Our Father! through the coming year
We know not what shall be ;
But we would leave without a fear
Its ordering all to Thee.
- 2 It may be we shall toil in vain
For what the world holds fair ;
And all the good we thought to gain,
Deceive and prove but care.
- 3 But calmly, Lord, on Thee we rest ;
No fears our trust shall move ;
Thou knowest what for each is best,
And Thou art Perfect Love.

The Lord is my Shepherd.— Psalm 23.

From MOZART.

1. The Lord Him - self, the might - y Lord, Vouch-safes to be my guide;

The Shep - herd, by whose con - stant care My wants are all sup - plied.

2 In tender grass He makes me feed,
And gently there repose;
Then leads me to cool shades, and where
Refreshing water flows.

3 He does my wandering soul reclaim,
And, to His endless praise,
Instruct with humble zeal to walk
In His most righteous ways.

4 I pass the gloomy vale of death,
From fear and danger free;
For there His aiding rod and staff
Defend and comfort me.

Tate and Brady.

I47 The Lord's Prayer.

1 Our Father, God, who art in heaven,
All hallowed be Thy name!
Thy kingdom come! Thy will be done,
In earth and heaven the same!

2 Give us this day our daily bread;
And, as we those forgive
Who sin against us, so may we Forgiving grace receive.

3 Into temptation lead us not;
From evil set us free;
And Thine the kingdom, Thine the pow'r
And glory ever be.

Surrounding the Mercy-Seat.

Arr. by I. E.

1. Far from mor-tal cares re-treat-ing, Sor-did hopes and vain de-sires,

Here, our will-ing foot-steps meet-ing, Ev-'ry heart to Heav'n as-pires,

From the Fount of glo-ry beam-ing, Light ce-les-tial cheers our eyes;

Mer-cy from a-bove pro-claim-ing Peace and par-don from the skies.

2 Who may share this great salvation?
 Every pure and humble mind; }
 Every kindred, tongue, and nation,
 From the dross of guilt refined.
 Blessings all around bestowing,
 God withholds His care from none;
 Grace and mercy ever flowing
 From the fountain of His throne.

3 Every stain of guilt abhorring,
 Firm and bold in virtue's cause;
 Still Thy Providence adoring,
 Faithful subjects to Thy laws,—
 Lord, with favor still attend us,
 Bless us with Thy wondrous love;
 Thou, our sun and shield, defend us:
 All our hope is from above.

The Lord is King.

FLÖTOW.

1. { God, my King, Thy might con-fess - ing, Ev - er will I bless Thy name ;
Day by day Thy throne ad-dress-ing, (Omit.)

Still will I Thy praise pro-claim. Naught shall fail from mem-ory's treas - ure,

Works by love and mer - cy wrought : Works of love sur - pass - ing meas-ure,

Works of mer - cy pass - ing thought, Works of mer - cy pass-ing thought.

- 2 Full of kindness and compassion,
Slow of anger, vast in love,
God is good to all creation ;
All His works His goodness prove.
All Thy works, O Lord, shall bless Thee ;
Thee, shall all Thy saints adore ;
King supreme shall they confess Thee,
And proclaim Thy sovereign power.

All from God.

ELVEY.

1. Fa-ther, Thy pa - ter - nal care Has my guardian been, my guide ; Ev - 'ry hal - lowed wish and pray'r Has Thy hand of love supplied. Thine is ev - 'ry tho't of bliss, Left by hours and days gone by ; Ev - 'ry hope Thy off-spring is, Beaming from fu - tur - i - ty.

2 Every sun of splendid ray,
 Every moon that shines serene,
 Every morn that welcomes day,
 Every evening's twilight scene,
 Every hour which wisdom brings,
 Every incense at Thy shrine,—
 These, and all life's holiest things,
 And its fairest, — all are Thine.

3 And, for all, my hymns shall rise
 Daily to Thy gracious throne ;
 Thither let my asking eyes
 Turn, unwearied, righteous One.
 Through life's strange vicissitude,
 There reposing all my care ;
 Trusting still, through ill and good,
 Fixed and cheered and counseled there.

Sir John Bowring.

Save me, O God, for the waters are come in unto my soul.

DYKES.

1. Je - sus, lov - er of my soul, Let me to Thy bos - om fly,

While the near - er wa - ters roll, While the tem - pest still is high :

Hide me, O my Sav - iour, hide, Till the storm of life is past ;

Safe in - to the ha - ven guide ; O re - ceive my soul at last.

2 Other refuge have I none,
 Hangs my helpless soul on Thee ;
 Leave, ah ! leave me not alone,
 Still support and comfort me.
 All my trust on Thee is stayed,
 All my help from Thee I bring ;
 Cover my defenceless head
 With the shadow of Thy wing.

3 Plenteous grace with Thee is found,
 Grace to cover all my sin ;
 Let the healing streams abound ;
 Make and keep me pure within !
 Thou of life the fountain art,
 Freely let me take of Thee ;
 Spring Thou up within my heart !
 Rise to all eternity.

1. Sol-diers of the cross, a - rise! Lo! your Lead-er from the skies Waves be-fore you

The first system of musical notation for the song. It consists of a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff, both in 4/4 time with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The melody is written in the treble staff, and the accompaniment is in the bass staff. The lyrics are written below the treble staff.

glo - ry's prize, The prize of vic - to - ry. . . Seize your ar - mor, gird it on;

The second system of musical notation. It continues the melody and accompaniment from the first system. The lyrics are written below the treble staff.

Now the bat - tle will be won; See, the strife will soon be done; Then strug - gle manfully.

The third system of musical notation, concluding the piece. It features a double bar line at the end of the treble staff. The lyrics are written below the treble staff.

2 Now the fight of faith begin;
Be no more the slaves of sin;
Strive the victor's palm to win;
Trusting in the Lord.

Gird ye on the armor bright,
Warriors of the King of light;
Never yield, nor lose by flight
Your divine reward.

3 Jesus conquered when He fell,
Met and vanquished earth and hell;
Now He leads you on to swell
The triumphs of His cross.

Though all earth and hell appear,
Who will doubt, or who can fear?
God, our strength and shield, is near;
We cannot lose our cause.

4 Onward, then, ye hosts of God!
Jesus points the victor's rod;
Follow where your Leader trod;
You soon shall see His face.
Soon, your enemies all slain,
Crowns of glory you shall gain;
Soon you'll join that glorious train
Who shout their Saviour's praise.

Jared B. Waterbury.

1. The flow'rs that bloom in sun and shade, And glit - ter in the dew;

The flow'rs must fade. The birds that build their nest and sing,

When love - ly spring is new, . . Must soon take wing. . .

- 2 The sun that rises in his strength,
 To wake and warm the world,
 Must set at length.
 The sea that overflows the shore,
 With billows frothed and curled,
 Must ebb once more.

Singing and making melody in your hearts unto the Lord. CALLOW.

1. How can we serve Thee, Lord, How sing a - right Thy praise,

To whom an - gel - ic hosts, Their songs of tri - umph raise?

How can our fee - ble tongues The heav'n - ly an - them swell,

And in our homes on earth . . Thy joys and glo - ries tell?

2 Dear Lord, we know not how;
 But Thou Thyself hath said,
 That out of children's lips
 Thy praise is perfected.
 So now accept the gift
 Of heart and voice we bring;
 And teach us, gracious Lord,
 To love Thee while we sing.

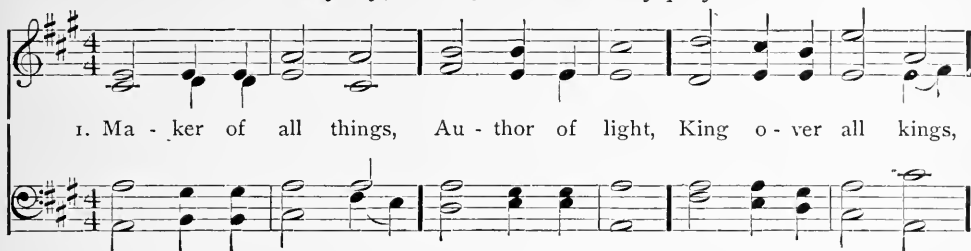

3 Teach us to cast ourselves
 In worship at Thy feet;
 And for our daily work,
 O Father! make us meet.
 Daily increase us, Lord,
 With faith, and hope, and love,
 That we at last may join
 The angel-choirs above.

Matchless in might, Lord, ev - er near us, Teach us Thy way; . .

First ending. | Last verse.
Hear us! oh hear us When we pray. Hear us In prayer and praise.

2 Mercies unceasing
Flow unto us;
Praises and blessings
We offer thus.
Lord, ever near us,
Teach us Thy way;
Hear us! oh hear us
When we pray.

3 On Thee depending
Grant us to be,
In bliss unending,
Father, with Thee.
Lord, ever near us,
Giver of grace,
Hear us! oh hear us
In prayer and praise.

 treas - ures, Boun - ti - ful and free. See, to help their giv - ing,
 Hid - den springs a - rise; Or, if need be, show - ers Feed them from the skies!

2 Watch the princely flowers,
 Their rich fragrance spread,
 Load the air with perfumes,
 From their beauty shed.
 Yet their lavish spending
 Leaves them not in dearth;
 With fresh life replenished
 By their mother earth.

3 Give thy heart's best treasures;
 From fair nature learn;
 Give thy love, and ask not,
 Wait not for return.
 And the more thou spendest
 From thy little store,
 With a double bounty,
 God will give thee more.

Every thing rejoices
 In the mellow rays;
 All earth's thousand voices
 Swell the psalm of praise.

2 God's free mercy streameth
 Over all the world,
 And His banner gleameth
 Everywhere unfurled.
 Broad and deep and glorious
 As the heaven above,
 Shines in might victorious
 His eternal Love.

3 We will never doubt Thee,
 Though Thou veil Thy light;
 Life is dark without Thee;
 Death with Thee is bright.
 Light of Light! shine o'er us
 On our pilgrim way;
 Go Thou still before us
 To the endless day.

Gently to the better land.

4 He will gird thee by His power,
In thy weary, fainting hour.
Lean, then, loving, on His word;
Cast thy burden on the Lord.

Let us sing unto the Lord.

MONK.

ALTO (BOYS).

1. Joy - ful be the hours to - day; Joy - ful let the sea - sons be;

The first system of the musical score consists of three staves. The top staff is the vocal line for Alto (Boys), written in treble clef with a key signature of three sharps (F#, C#, G#) and a 4/4 time signature. The middle staff is the vocal line for the Monks, written in treble clef with the same key signature and time signature. The bottom staff is the bass line, written in bass clef with the same key signature and time signature. The lyrics are printed below the middle staff.

Let us sing, for well we may. Je - sus! we will sing of Thee.

The second system of the musical score consists of three staves, continuing the vocal and bass lines from the first system. The lyrics are printed below the middle staff.

- 2 Joyful are we now to own,
Rapture thrills us as we trace
All the deeds Thy love hath done,
All the riches of Thy grace.
- 3 'Tis Thy grace alone can save;
Every blessing comes from Thee—
All we have, and hope to have,
All we are, and hope to be.
- 4 Thine the Name to sinners dear;
Thine the Name all names before.
Blesséd here and everywhere;
Blesséd now and evermore.

Rev. Thomas Kelly.

162 Divine Protection.

- 1 They who on the Lord rely
Safely dwell, though danger's nigh;
Lo, His sheltering wings are spread
O'er each faithful servant's head.
- 2 Vain temptation's wily snare:
They shall be the Father's care.
Harmless flies the shaft by day,
Or in darkness wings its way.
- 3 When they wake or when they sleep,
Angel guards their vigils keep.
Death and danger may be near;
Faith and love can never fear.

1. Love di-vine, all love ex-cel-ling, Joy of heav'n, to earth come down,

Fix in us Thy hum-ble dwell-ing, All Thy faith-ful mer-cies crown:

Je-sus, Thou art all com- pass-ion, Pure, un-bound-ed love Thou art;

Vis-it us with Thy sal-va-tion, En-ter ev-'ry tremb-ling heart.

2 Breathe, O breathe Thy loving Spirit
 Into every troubled breast;
 Let us all in Thee inherit,
 Let us find Thy promised rest;
 Come, Almighty to deliver,
 Let us all Thy grace receive;
 Speedily return, and never,
 Never more Thy temples leave.

3 Finish then Thy new creation,
 Pure and spotless let us be:
 Let us see Thy great salvation
 Perfectly restored in Thee.
 Changed from glory into glory,
 Till in heaven we take our place:
 Till we cast our crowns before Thee,
 Lost in wonder, love, and praise.

Age by age have myriads found Thee Lord of lords and King of kings.

2 Born to heal what sin hath broken—
 Born its captives to release,
 Born, by Prophet-lips forespoken,
 Mighty God and Prince of Peace.
 When the Passions rage in blindness,
 Thou their stormy waves canst still,
 Turning by Thy spell of kindness
 Hate and malice to good will.
 Child Divine, whoe'er hath known Thee
 Hails the joy Thy presence brings:
 Thine through life, in death we own
 Thee
 Lord of lords and King of kings.

3 Sing, ye hosts, triumphant thronging
 Round the Lamb enthroned in light;
 Sing, O man, the hymn prolonging
 Through thy toils of hourly fight.
 Sing what Grace, what nameless Glory
 Stopped to rescue sons of Earth;
 Grateful, spread the wondrous story,
 Hail th'incarnate Saviour's birth.
 Child divine, all hearts that know Thee
 Know the strength Thy presence brings,
 Know what debt of love we owe Thee,
 Lord of lords and King of kings.

CHORUS.

Sav-iour King, Who al-ways deigns to hear;

"Glo-ry to God, and peace on earth."

The chorus section begins with the vocal line: "Sav-iour King, Who al-ways deigns to hear;". The piano accompaniment features a rhythmic pattern of eighth notes. The chorus concludes with the lyrics: "Glo-ry to God, and peace on earth.".

2 He came to tell the Father's love,
 His goodness, truth, and grace;
 To show the brightness of His smile,
 The glory of His face;
 With His own light, so full and bright,
 The shades of death to chase.
 "Glory to God, and peace on earth."

3 He came to bring the weary ones
 True peace and perfect rest;
 To take away the guilt and sin
 Which darken'd and distress'd;

That great and small might hear His call,
 And all in Him be bless'd.
 "Glory to God, and peace on earth."

4 He came to bring a glorious gift,
 Good-will to men; — and why?
 Because He lov'd us, Jesus came
 For us to live and die.
 Then, sweet and long the Angels' song,
 Again we raise on high.
 "Glory to God, and peace on earth."

 Tell to every heart,
 Tell in every part,
 How the earth at last is waking
 Under God's own hand.

3 Bells of Easter, sing!
 Bells of Easter, fling
 Music sweet and solemn, bringing tho'ts of hope, of hope and love;

Man is not alone;
 God is on His throne:
 Here begins the life immortal,
 Blossoming above.

4 Tell the world anew,
 Tell the story true,
 How the Saviour rose triumphant, con-

2 Yes, my God, I come before Thee,
Come Thou also down to me;
Where we find Thee and adore Thee,
There a heaven on earth must be.
To my heart, O enter Thou,
Let it be Thy Temple now.

3 Here Thy praise is gladly chanted,
Here Thy seed is duly sown;
Let my soul, where it is planted,
Bring forth precious sheaves alone;
So that all I hear may be
Fruitful unto life in me.

4 Thou my faith increase and quicken,
Let me keep Thy Gift Divine,
Howso'er temptations thicken;
May Thy Word still o'er me shine,
As my pole-star through my life,
As my comfort in my strife.

5 Speak, O God, and I will hear Thee,
Let Thy will be done indeed;
May I undisturbed draw near Thee
Whilst Thou dost Thy people feed.
Here of Life the Fountain flows,
Here is Balm for all our woes.

Land of the noble free,
Thy name I love;
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills;
My heart with rapture thrills,
Like that above.

3 Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees,
Sweet freedom's song;

Let mortal tongues awake,
Let all that breathe partake;
Let rocks their silence break,
The sound prolong.

4 Our Father's God, to Thee,
Author of liberty,
To Thee we sing,
Long may our land be bright,
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by Thy might,
Great God our King.

175 OUR EMBLEM.

By permission of H. MILLARD.

Con energia.

1. No - bly our flag flut - ters o'er us to - day, Em - blem of peace, pledge of

Lib - er - ty's sway; Its foes shall trem - ble and shrink in dis - may,

If e'er in - sult - ed it be. Our stripes and stars lov'd and hon - or'd by all, Shall float for - ev - er where freedom may call;

It still shall be the flag of the free, Em-blem of sweet lib-er - ty.

CHORUS.

Here we will gath-er its cause to de-fend ; Let pa - triots ral - ly and wise counsels lend ;

It still shall be the flag of the free, Em-blem of sweet lib-er - ty.

- 2 With it in beauty no flag can compare ;
 All nations honor our banner so fair ;
 If to insult it a traitor should dare,
 Crushed to the earth let him be.
 Freedom and Progress our watchword today ;
 When duty calls us, who dares disobey ?
 Honor to thee, thou flag of the free,
 Emblem of sweet liberty.
- 3 Ever united this fair land shall be ;
 Our flag shall conquer on land or on sea ;
 Every opposer shall soon bend the knee ;
 God speed the darling old flag.
 No North, no South, no New England, no West,
 One Country always the greatest, the best ;
 Long may it wave, the poor and opprest
 Bless thee, thou flag of the free.

 And threaten'd the land to deform,
 The ark then of freedom's foundation,
 Columbia, rode safe thro' the storm.
 With garlands of victory around her,
 When proudly she bore her brave crew,
 With flag proudly floating before her,
 The boast of the red, white, and blue,
 The boast of the red, white, and blue,
 The boast of the red, white, and blue;
 With her flag floating proudly before her,
 The boast of the red, white, and blue.

I 77 FLAG OF THE FREE. 8s & 10s.

WAGNER.

1. Flag of the free, fair-est to see! Borne thro' the strife and the thunder of war;

Ban-ner so bright, with star-ry light, Float ev-er proud-ly from mountain to shore:

Em-blem of free-dom, hope to the slave, Spread thy fair folds to shield and to save;

While thro' the sky loud rings the cry, Un-ion and Lib-er-ty! One ev-er-more.

2 Flag of the brave, long may it wave,
 Chosen of God while His might we adore;
 In freedom's van, for good to man,
 Symbol of right thro' the years passing o'er:
 Pride of our country, honored afar,
 Scatter each cloud that dims but a star;
 While thro' the sky loud rings the cry,
 Union and Liberty! One evermore.

Anon.

I 78 THE WATCH ON THE RHINE.

German War Song.

C. WILHELM.

Boldly.

1. A peal of thun-der calls the brave, The clash of sword and sound of war,

The Rhine, the Rhine, the Ger-man Rhine, Who now will guard the riv-er's line?

Dear Fa-ther-land, no fear be thine! Dear Fa-ther-land, no fear be thine! Firm stands thy guard a-long, a - long the Rhine! Firm stands thy guard a-long, a - long the Rhine.

2 A hundred thousand hearts beat high,
The answer flames from every eye,
The German youth devoted stand,
To shield the holy border land.
Dear Fatherland, etc.

3 So long as blood shall warm our veins,
While for the sword one hand remains,
One arm to bear a gun, no more
Shall foot of foemen tread the shore.
Dear Fatherland, etc.

I79 MARSEILLES HYMN.

French War Song.

ROUGET DE LISLE.

1. Ye sons of Free-dom, wake to glo - ry, Hark! hark! what my - riads bid you rise; Your chil-dren, wives, and grandsires hoar-y, Be-hold their tears and hear their cries! Be-hold their tears and hear their cries! Shall law-less ty-rants mis-chief breeding, With hire-ling host, a ruf-fian band, Af-fright and des-o-late the land, While peace and lib-er-ty lie bleeding? To arms, to arms, ye brave, The pa - triot sword un - sheath. March on, march on, all hearts re - solved On lib - er - ty or death. March on, march on, all hearts re - solved On lib - er - ty or death.

2 O liberty! can man resign thee,
 Once having felt thy glorious flame?
 Can tyrants' bolts and bars confine thee,
 And thus thy noble spirit tame,
 And thus thy noble spirit tame?
 Too long our country wept, bewailing
 The blood-stained sword our conq'rors wield;
 But freedom is our sword and shield,
 And all their arts are unavailing.
 To arms, to arms, ye brave,
 The patriot sword unsheath.
 March on, march on, all hearts resolved
 On liberty or death.
 March on, march on, all hearts resolved
 On liberty or death.

180 HAIL, COLUMBIA!

FYLES.

1. Hail, Co - lum - bia, hap - py land! Hail, ye he - roes,

The first system of music features a treble and bass staff in 4/4 time with a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#). The melody in the treble staff consists of eighth and quarter notes, while the bass staff provides a steady accompaniment of quarter notes.

heav'n - born band, Who fought and bled in free - dom's cause,

The second system continues the melody and accompaniment. The treble staff melody includes some eighth-note patterns, and the bass staff accompaniment remains consistent with quarter notes.

Who fought and bled in freedom's cause, And when the storm of war is gone,

The third system introduces a change in the treble staff melody, featuring more eighth-note runs. The bass staff accompaniment continues with quarter notes.

En - joyed the peace your val - or won. Let In - de - pen - dence be your boast,

The fourth system concludes the piece. The treble staff melody includes triplet markings (indicated by a '3' and a slur) over eighth notes. The bass staff accompaniment continues with quarter notes.

Ev - er mind - ful what it cost; Ev - er grate - ful for the prize,

Let its al - tar reach the skies. Firm, u - nit - ed, let us be, Ral - lying round our lib - er - ty; As a band of broth - ers joined, Peace and safe - ty we shall find.

2 Immortal patriots, rise once more!
 Defend your rights, defend your shore;
 Let no rude foe, with impious hand,
 Let no rude foe, with impious hand,
 Invade the shrine where sacred lies
 Of toil and blood the well-earned prize;
 While offering peace, sincere and just,
 In heaven we place a manly trust,
 That truth and justice may prevail,
 And every scheme of bondage fail.
 Firm, united, etc.

The American National Hymn.

SAMUEL ARNOLD.

SOPRANO.

1. Oh, say, can you see by the dawn's ear - ly light, What so

The first system of the soprano part is written on a single staff in G major (one flat) and 3/4 time. It begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat. The melody starts with a quarter note G4, followed by quarter notes A4, B4, and C5. The lyrics "1. Oh, say, can you see by the dawn's ear - ly light, What so" are written below the staff.

The fourth system continues the melody. The lyrics "ram - parts we watched, were so gal - lant - ly stream - ing?" are written below the staff.

SOPRANO AND ALTO.

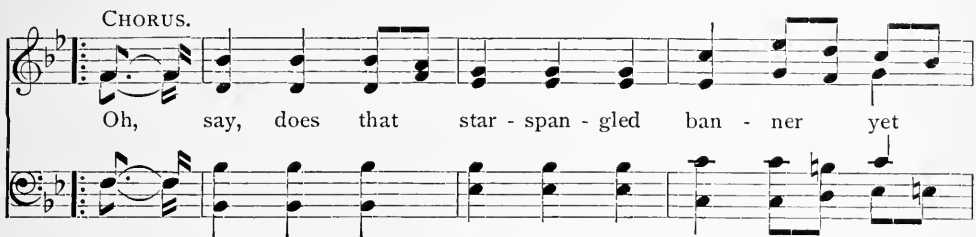

And the rock - et's red glare, the bombs burst - ing in air,

The fifth system is shared by both soprano and alto. It is written on two staves. The lyrics "And the rock - et's red glare, the bombs burst - ing in air," are written below the staves.

Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there.

CHORUS.

Oh, say, does that star-span-gled ban-ner yet wave O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

2 On the shore, dimly seen thro' the mists of the deep,
 Where the foe's mighty host in dread silence reposes,
 What is that which the breeze, o'er the towering steep,
 As it fitfully blows, half conceals, half discloses?
 Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam;
 In glory reflected now shines on the stream:
 || : 'Tis the star-spangled banner: oh, long may it wave
 O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.: ||

3 Oh, thus be it ever when freemen shall stand
 Between their loved home and the war's desolation;
 Blest with vict'ry and peace, may the heav'n-rescued land
 Praise the power that hath made and preserved us a nation.
 Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just,
 And this be our motto,—“In God is our trust!”
 || : And the star-spangled banner in triumph shall wave
 O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.: ||

Francis Scott Key.

Ours thy greatness, ours thy glory
We will e'er be true to thee.
Ark of freedom, glory's dwelling,
Native land, God keep thee free.

3 Vainly 'gainst thine arm contending,
Tyrants know thy might and flee;
Freedom's cause on earth defending,
Man has set his hopes on thee;
Widening glory, peace unending,—
Thy reward and portion be.
Ark of freedom, glory's dwelling,
Native land, God keep thee free.

183 RUSSIAN HYMN. L. M.

Omnipotence and Wisdom.

LWOFF.

1. Come, O my soul! in sa-cred lays At-tempt Thy great Cre - a - tor's praise:

But, oh, what tongue can speak His fame? What mor - tal verse can reach the theme?

2. Enthroned amid the radiant spheres,
He glory, like a garment, wears;
To form a robe of light divine,
Ten thousands suns around Him shine.

3 In all our Maker's grand designs,
Almighty power with wisdom shines;
His works, through all this wondrous frame,
Declare the glory of His Name.

4 Raised on devotion's lofty wing,
Do thou, my soul, His glories sing;
And let His praise employ thy tongue,
Till listening worlds shall join the song!

Rev. Thomas Blacklock.

184 The Lord is King.

1 The Lord is King! lift up thy voice,
O earth, and all ye heavens, rejoice!
From world to world the joy shall ring:
"The Lord omnipotent is King!"

2 The Lord is King! who then shall dare
Resist His will, distrust His care?
Holy and true are all His ways;
Let every creature speak His praise.

3 Oh, when His wisdom can mistake,
His might decay, His love forsake,
Then may His children cease to sing
"The Lord omnipotent is King."

I85 BROWNE. S. M.

The Pilgrim Fathers.

MARY A. BROWNE.

1. The breaking waves dashed high On a stern and rockbound coast, And the woods against a storm - y sky, Their gi - ant branches tossed; And the heav - y night hung dark,

The hills and waters o'er, When a band of exiles moored their bark On the wild New England shore.

2 Not as the conqueror comes,
 They, the true-hearted, came;
 Not with the roll of stirring drums,
 And the trump that sings of fame;
 Not as the flying come,
 In silence and in fear;
 They shook the depths of the desert's gloom
 With their hymns of lofty cheer.

3 Amidst the storm they sang;
 And the stars heard, and the sea!
 And the sounding aisles of the dim woods rang
 To the anthem of the free.

The ocean eagle soared
 From his nest by the white wave's foam,
 And the rocking pines of the forest
 roared,
 This was their welcome home!

4 What sought they thus afar?
 Bright jewels of the mine?
 The wealth of seas, the spoils of war?
 They sought a faith's pure shrine!
 Ay, call it holy ground,
 The soil where first they trod!
 They have left unstained, what here
 they found:
 Freedom to worship God.

186 HOME, SWEET HOME.

Sir HENRY R. BISHOP.

1. 'Mid pleas - ures and pal - a - ces though we may roam, Be it ev - er so hum - ble, there's no place like home; A charm from the skies seems to hal - low us there, Which seek thro' the world, is ne'er met with else-where.

Home, home, sweet, sweet home; Be it ev - er so humble, There's no place like home.

2 I gaze on the moon as I tread the drear wild,
 And feel that my mother now thinks of her child,
 As she looks on that moon from our own cottage door,
 Thro' the woodbine whose fragrance shall cheer me no more.

Home, etc.

3 An exile from home, splendor dazzles in vain;
 Oh, give me my lowly thatch'd cottage again!
 The birds singing gaily, that came at my call;
 Give me them, and that peace of mind, dearer than all.

Home, etc.

187 AULD LANG SYNE.

Old Scotch Melody.

1. Should auld ac-quaintance be for-got, And nev-er brought to mind?

Should auld ac-quaint-ance be for-got, And days of auld lang syne?

For auld lang syne, my friends, we meet, For days of old lang syne;

We'll have a thought of kind-ness yet, For days of "auld lang syne."

- 2 We two ha'e run about the braes
And pu'd the gowans fine;
We've wandered mony a weary fit,
In days of auld lang syne.
For auld lang syne, etc.
- 3 And there's a hand, my trusty friend;
Wilt gi'es a hand o' thine?
We'll tak' a richt gude willie-waught
For days of auld lang syne.
For auld lang syne, etc.

Selection First.

PSALM 5.

Teacher. Give ear to my words, O Lord; consider my meditation.

School. Hearken unto the voice of my cry, my King, and my God:
for unto thee will I pray.

T. My voice shalt thou hear in the morning, O Lord;

S. In the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee, and will look up.

T. For thou art not a God that hath pleasure in wickedness:

S. Neither shall evil dwell with thee.

T. As for me, I will come into thy house in the multitude of thy mercy:

S. And in thy fear will I worship toward thy holy temple.

T. Lead me, O Lord, in thy righteousness;

S. Make thy way straight before my face.

T. Let all those that put their trust in thee rejoice: let them ever shout for joy, because thou defendest them:

S. Let them also that love thy name be joyful in thee.

T. For thou, Lord, wilt bless the righteous;

S. With favor wilt thou compass him as with a shield.

PSALM 1.

T. Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.

S. But his delight is in the law of the Lord; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.

T. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.

S. The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

T. Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

All. For the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

Selection Second.

1st COR. 13.

- Teacher.* Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.
- School.* And though I have the gift of prophecy; and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing.
- T.* And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.
- S.* Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up,
- T.* Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil;
- S.* Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth;
- T.* Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.
- S.* Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.
- T.* For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.
- S.* But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.
- T.* When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child; but when I became a man, I put away childish things.
- S.* For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.
- T.* And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.

1st JOHN 4: 7-13.

- T.* Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God.
- S.* He that loveth not, knoweth not God; for God is love.
- T.* In this was manifested the love of God towards us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him.
- S.* Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins.
- T.* Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.

S. No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us.

All. Hereby know we that we dwell in him and he in us, because he hath given us of his spirit.

Selection Third.

PROVERBS 1 : 5-19, et passim.

Teacher. A wise man will hear, and will increase learning; and a man of understanding shall attain unto wise counsels.

School. The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge: but fools despise wisdom and instruction.

T. My son, hear the instruction of thy father, and forsake not the law of thy mother.

S. For they shall be an ornament of grace unto thy head, and chains about thy neck.

T. My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not.

S. Walk not thou in the way with them; refrain thy foot from their path:

T. For their feet run to evil, and make haste to shed blood.

S. Surely in vain the net is spread in the sight of any bird.

T. And they lay wait for their own blood; they lurk privily for their own lives.

S. So are the ways of every one that is greedy of gain; which taketh away the life of the owners thereof.

T. Trust in the Lord with all thine heart, and lean not unto thine own understanding.

S. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

T. My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord; neither be weary of his correction.

S. For whom the Lord loveth he correcteth; even as a father the son in whom he delighteth,

T. The path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day.

S. Keep thine heart with all diligence, for out of it are the issues of life.

T. I love them that love me, and those that seek me early shall find me.

All. Now therefore, hearken unto me, O ye children; for blessed are they that keep my ways.

Selection Fourth.

PSALM 19.

Teacher. The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handywork.

School. Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge.

- T.* There is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard.
- S.* Their line is gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world. In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun,
- T.* Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a strong man to run a race.
- S.* His going forth is from the end of the heaven, and his circuit unto the ends of it: and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.
- T.* The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple.
- S.* The statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes.
- T.* The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring for ever: the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether.
- S.* More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb.
- T.* Moreover by them is thy servant warned: and in keeping of them there is great reward.
- S.* Who can understand his errors? cleanse thou me from secret faults.
- T.* Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me: then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from the great transgression.
- S.* Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength, and my redeemer.

PSALM 23.

- T.* The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
- S.* He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.
- T.* He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
- S.* Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

T. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies : thou anointest my head with oil ; my cup runneth over.

All. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life : and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Selection Fifth.

PROVERBS 3 : 1-20.

Teacher My son, forget not my law ; but let thy heart keep my commandments :

School. For length of days, and long life, and peace, shall they add to thee.

T. Let not mercy and truth forsake thee : bind them about thy neck ; write them upon the table of thine heart :

S. So shalt thou find favor and good understanding in the sight of God and man.

T. Trust in the Lord with all thine heart ; and lean not unto thine own understanding.

S. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

T. Be not wise in thine own eyes : fear the Lord, and depart from evil.

S. It shall be health to thee, and marrow to thy bones.

T. Honor the Lord with thy substance, and with the first-fruits of all thine increase :

S. So shall thy barns be filled with plenty, and thy presses shall burst out with new wine.

T. My son, despise not the chastening of the Lord ; neither be weary of his correction :

S. For whom the Lord loveth he correcteth ; even as a father a son in whom he delighteth.

T. Happy is the man that findeth wisdom, and the man that getteth understanding.

S. For the merchandise of it is better than the merchandise of silver, and the gain thereof than fine gold.

T. She is more precious than rubies : and all the things thou canst desire are not to be compared unto her.

S. Length of days is in her right hand ; and in her left hand riches and honor.

T. Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace.

S. She is a tree of life to them that lay hold upon her : and happy is every one that retaineth her.

T. The Lord by wisdom hath founded the earth : by understanding hath he established the heavens.

All. By his knowledge the depths are broken up, and the clouds drop down the dew,

Selection Sixth.

ECCLESIASTES 12: 1-7.

- Teacher.* Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth,
School. While the the evil days come not,
T. Nor the years draw nigh,
S. When thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them ;
T. While the sun, or the light,
S. Or the moon, or the stars, be not darkened,
T. Nor the clouds return after the rain :
S. In the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble,
T. And the strong men shall bow themselves,
S. And the grinders cease because they are few,
T. And those that look out of the windows be darkened;
S. And the doors shall be shut in the streets ;
T. When the sound of the grinding is low,
S. And he shall rise up at the voice of the bird,
T. And all the daughters of music shall be brought low ;
S. Also when they shall be afraid of that which is high,
T. And fears shall be in the way,
S. And the almond-tree shall flourish,
T. And the grasshopper shall be a burden,
S. And desire shall fail : because man goeth to his long home,
T. And the mourners go about the streets.
S. Or ever the silver cord be loosed,
T. Or the golden bowl be broken,
S. Or the pitcher be broken at the fountain,
T. Or the wheel be broken at the cistern ;
S. Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was,
All. And the spirit shall return unto God who gave it.

Selection Seventh.

PSALM 104.

- Teacher.* O Lord, my God, thou art very great ;
School. Thou art clothed with honor and majesty :
T. Who coverest thyself with light as with a garment ;
S. Who stretchest out the heavens like a curtain ;
T. Who layeth the beams of his chambers in the waters :
S. Who maketh the clouds his chariot ;

- T.* Who walketh upon the wings of the wind :
S. Who maketh his angels spirits,
T. His ministers a flaming fire :
S. Who laid the foundations of the earth,
T. That it should not be removed forever.
S. Thou coveredst the deep as with a garment,
T. The waters stood above the mountains.
S. At thy rebuke they fled ;
T. At the voice of thy thunder, they hasted away.
S. He sendeth the springs into the valleys,
T. Which run among the hills.
S. They give drink to every beast of the field.
T. He watereth the hills from his chambers ;
S. The earth is satisfied with the fruit of thy works.
T. He causeth grass to grow for the cattle,
S. And herb for the service of man :
T. He appointeth the moon for seasons ;
S. The sun knoweth his going down.
T. Thou makest darkness, and it is night :
S. Wherein all the beasts of the forest do creep forth.
T. The young lions roar after their prey,
S. And seek their meat from God.
T. The sun ariseth, they gather themselves together,
S. And lay them down in their dens.
T. Man goeth forth to his work,
S. And to his labor until the evening.
T. O Lord, how manifold are Thy works !
S. In wisdom hast thou made them all :
T. The earth is full of thy riches.
S. So is this great and wide sea,
T. Wherein are things creeping innumerable,
S. Both small and great beasts.
T. There go the ships :
S. There is that leviathan whom thou hast made to play therein.
All. These wait all upon thee : that thou mayest give them their meat in due season.

Selection Eighth.GOD OUR KING.

Teacher. God is the King of all the earth. — PSALM 47: 7.

School. The Lord is King for ever and ever. — PSALM 10: 16.

T. Sing praises to God, sing praises: sing praises unto our King, sing praises. — PSALM 47: 6.

S. Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.

T. Who is this King of glory?

S. The Lord strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle.

T. Lift up your heads, O ye gates; even lift them up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.

S. Who is this King of glory?

T. The Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory. — PSALM 24: 7-10.

S. Thine, O Lord, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine; thine is the kingdom, O Lord, and thou art exalted as head above all.

T. Both riches and honor come of thee, and thou reignest over all; and in thy hand is power and might: and in thy hand it is to make great, and to give strength unto all.

All. Now therefore, our God, we thank thee, and praise thy glorious name. — I CHRON. 29: 11-13.

Selection Ninth.GREATNESS AND GOODNESS OF GOD.*PSALM 145.

Teacher. I will extol thee, my God, O King.

School. I will bless thy name for ever and ever.

T. Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised;

S. And his greatness is unsearchable.

T. One generation shall praise thy works to another,

S. And shall declare thy mighty acts.

T. I will speak of the glorious honor of thy majesty,

S. And of thy wondrous works.

T. And men shall speak of the might of thy terrible acts;

S. And I will declare thy greatness.

T. They shall abundantly utter the memory of thy great goodness,

- S.* And shall sing of thy righteousness.
- T.* The Lord is gracious and full of compassion.
- S.* Slow to anger and of great mercy.
- T.* The Lord is good to all:
- S.* And his tender mercies are over all his works.
- T.* All thy works shall praise thee, O Lord, and thy saints shall bless thee.
- S.* They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom, and talk of thy power.
- T.* Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom,
- S.* And thy dominion endureth throughout all generations.
- T.* The Lord upholdeth all that fall,
- S.* And raiseth up all that be bowed down.
- T.* The eyes of all wait upon thee,
- S.* And thou givest them their meat in due season.
- T.* Thou openest thine hand,
- S.* And satisfiest the desire of every living thing.
- T.* The Lord is righteous in all his ways,
- S.* And holy in all his works.
- T.* The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon him,
- S.* To all them that call upon him in truth.
- All.* My mouth shall speak the praise of the Lord; and let all flesh bless his holy name for ever and ever.

Selection Tenth.

MATTHEW 5: 2-10, et passim.

- Teacher.* Blessed are the poor in spirit;
- School.* For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
- T.* Blessed are they that mourn;
- S.* For they shall be comforted.
- T.* Blessed are the meek;
- S.* For they shall inherit the earth.
- T.* Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness;
- S.* For they shall be filled.
- T.* Blessed are the merciful;
- S.* For they shall obtain mercy.
- T.* Blessed are the pure in heart;
- S.* For they shall see God.
- T.* Blessed are the peacemakers;
- S.* For they shall be called the children of God.

- T.* Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake ;
S. For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
- T.* Blessed are the undefiled in the way,
S. Who walk in the law of the Lord.
- T.* Blessed are they that dwell in thy house :
S. They will be still praising thee.
- T.* Blessed are they that keep judgment,
S. And he that doeth righteousness at all times.
- All.* Blessed are they that hear the word of God and keep it.

Selection Eleventh.

TRUTH.

Passim.

- Teacher.* Lord, who shall abide in thy tabernacle? who shall dwell in thy holy hill?
School. He that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness, and speaketh the truth in his heart.
- T.* Ye shall not steal, neither deal falsely,
S. Neither lie one to another.
- T.* He that worketh deceit shall not dwell within my house,
S. He that telleth lies shall not tarry in my sight.
- T.* These are the things that ye shall do :
S. Speak ye every man the truth to his neighbor,
- T.* Execute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates ;
S. And love no false oath.
- T.* Lie not one to another.
S. Buy the truth, and sell it not.
- T.* Lying lips are an abomination to the Lord.
S. The mouth that speaketh lies shall be stopped.
- T.* The lip of truth shall be established for ever ;
S. But a lying tongue is but for a moment.
- T.* Lead me in thy truth, and teach me, for thou art the God of my salvation.
S. Remember not the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions.
- All.* O send out thy light and thy truth ; let them lead me ; let them bring me unto thy holy hill, into thy tabernacles.

Selection Twelfth.

PSALM 146.

Teacher. Praise ye the Lord.

School. Praise the Lord, O my soul.

T. While I live will I praise the Lord :

S. I will sing praises unto my God while I have any being.

T. Put not your trust in princes,

S. Nor in the son of man, in whom there is no help.

T. Happy is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help,

S. Whose hope is in the Lord his God :

T. Which made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that therein is :

S. Which keepeth truth forever :

T. Which executeth judgment for the oppressed :

S. Which giveth food to the hungry.

T. The Lord looseth the prisoners :

S. The Lord openeth the eyes of the blind :

T. The Lord raiseth them that are bowed down :

S. The Lord loveth the righteous :

T. The Lord preserveth the strangers ;

S. He relieveth the fatherless and widow :

All. But the way of the wicked he turneth upside down.

PSALM 150.

T. Praise ye the Lord.

S. Praise God in his sanctuary.

T. Praise him in the firmament of his power.

S. Praise him for his mighty acts.

T. Praise him according to his excellent greatness.

S. Praise him with the sound of the trumpet.

T. Praise him with the psaltery and harp.

S. Praise him with the timbrel and dance.

T. Praise him with stringed instruments and organs.

S. Praise him upon the loud cymbals.

T. Praise him upon the high-sounding cymbals.

S. Let everything that hath breath praise the Lord.

All. Praise ye the Lord.

Selection Thirteenth.

WISDOM.

- Teacher.* My son, if thou wilt receive my words,
School. And hide my commandments with thee,
T. So that thou incline thine ear unto wisdom,
S. And apply thy heart to understanding ;
T. Yea, if thou criest after knowledge,
S. And liftest up thy voice for understanding ;
T. If thou seekest her as silver,
S. And searchest for her as for hid treasures ;
T. Then shalt thou understand the fear of the Lord,
S. And find the knowledge of God.
T. For the Lord giveth wisdom :
S. Out of his mouth cometh knowledge and understanding.
T. He layeth up sound wisdom for the righteous :
S. He is a buckler to them that walk uprightly.
T. In all thy ways acknowledge him,
S. And he shall direct thy paths.
T. For the Lord shall be thy confidence,
S. And shall keep thy foot from being taken.
T. The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom,
S. And the knowledge of the holy is understanding.
T. My son, forget not my law ;
S. But let thy heart keep my commandments :
T. For length of days, and long life,
S. And peace, shall they add to thee :
T. Let not mercy and truth forsake thee :
S. Bind them about thy neck,
T. Write them upon the table of thy heart.
All. So shalt thou find favor and good understanding in the sight of God and man.

Selection Fourteenth.

PSALM 103.

- Teacher.* Bless the Lord, O my soul :
School. And all that is within me, bless his holy name.
T. Bless the Lord, O my soul,
S. And forget not all his benefits :

- T.* Who forgiveth all thine iniquities ;
S. Who healeth all thy diseases ;
- T.* Who redeemeth thy life from destruction.
S. Who crowneth thee with loving-kindness and tender mercies ;
- T.* Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things,
S. So that thy youth is renewed like the eagle's.
- T.* The Lord is merciful and gracious,
S. Slow to anger and plenteous in mercy.
- T.* He will not always chide ;
S. Neither will he keep his anger forever.
- T.* He hath not dealt with us after our sins.
S. Nor rewarded us according to our iniquities.
- T.* For as the heaven is high above the earth,
S. So great is his mercy toward them that fear him.
- T.* As far as the east is from the west,
S. So far hath he removed our transgressions from us.
- T.* Like as a father pitieth his children,
S. So the Lord pitieth them that fear him.
- T.* For he knoweth our frame ;
S. He remembereth that we are dust.
- T.* As for man, his days are as grass :
S. As a flower of the field, so he flourisheth ;
- T.* For the wind passeth over it and it is gone ;
S. And the place thereof shall know it no more.
- T.* But the mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him,
S. And his righteousness unto children's children ;
- T.* To such as keep his covenant,
S. And to those that remember his commandments to do them.
- T.* Bless the Lord, ye his angels, that excel in strength,
S. That do his commandments, hearkening unto the voice of his word.
- T.* Bless ye the Lord, all ye his hosts.
S. Ye ministers of his, that do his pleasure.
- T.* Bless the Lord, all his works, in all places of his dominion :
S. Bless the Lord, O my soul.

Selection Fifteenth.

BIBLE BENEFICENCE.

Teacher. Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.—JAMES 1 : 17.

School. Every man shall give as he is able, according to the blessing of the Lord thy God which he hath given thee.—DEUT. 16 : 17.

T. The poor shall never cease out of the land : therefore I command thee, saying, Thou shalt open thy hand wide unto thy brother, to thy poor, and to thy needy, in thy land.—DEUT. 15 : 11.

S. Cast thy bread upon the waters, for thou shalt find it after many days.

T. Give a portion to seven, and also to eight ; for thou knowest not what evil shall be upon the earth.—ECCLES. 11 : 1, 2.

S. The liberal deviseth liberal things ; and by liberal things shall he stand.—ISA. 32 : 8.

T. And if thou draw out thy soul to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul ; then shall thy light rise in obscurity, and thy darkness be as the noontday.—ISA. 58 : 10.

S. And the Lord shall guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in drought, and make fat thy bones : and thou shalt be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters fail not.—ISA. 58 : 11.

T. The liberal soul shall be made fat : and he that watereth shall be watered also himself—PROV. 11 : 25.

S. There is that maketh himself rich, yet hath nothing : there is that maketh himself poor, yet hath great riches.—PROV. 13 : 7.

T. Honor the Lord with thy substance, and with the first-fruits of all thine increase.

S. So shall thy barns be filled with plenty, and thy presses shall burst out with new wine.—PROV. 3 : 9, 10.

T. Give, and it shall be given unto you ; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give unto your bosom. For with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again.—LUKE 6 : 38.

All. He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly ; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully.

Selection Sixteenth.

PROVERBS 16: 7-25.

- Teacher.* When a man's ways please the Lord, he maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him.
- School.* Better is a little with righteousness, than great revenues without right.
- T.* A man's heart deviseth his way: but the Lord directeth his steps.
- S.* A divine sentence is in the lips of the King: his mouth transgresseth not in judgment.
- T.* A just weight and balance are the Lord's: all the weights of the bag are his work.
- S.* It is an abomination to kings to commit wickedness: for the throne is established by righteousness.
- T.* Righteous lips are the delight of kings; and they love him that speaketh right.
- S.* The wrath of a king is as messengers of death: but a wise man will pacify it.
- T.* In the light of the king's countenance is life; and his favor is as a cloud of the latter rain.
- S.* How much better is it to get wisdom than gold! and to get understanding rather to be chosen than silver!
- T.* The highway of the upright is to depart from evil: he that keepeth his way preserveth his soul.
- S.* Pride goeth before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall.
- T.* Better it is to be of an humble spirit with the lowly, than to divide the spoil with the proud.
- S.* He that handleth a matter wisely shall find good: and whoso trusteth in the Lord, happy is he.
- T.* The wise in heart shall be called prudent: and the sweetness of the lips increaseth learning.
- S.* Understanding is a well-spring of life unto him that hath it: but the instruction of fools is folly.
- T.* The heart of the wise teacheth his mouth, and addeth learning to his lips.
- S.* Pleasant words are as a honeycomb, sweet to the soul, and health to the bones.
- All.* There is a way that seemeth right unto a man; but the end thereof are the ways of death.

Selection Seventeenth.

PSALM 34.

- Teacher.* I will bless the Lord at all times : his praise shall continually be in my mouth.
- School.* My soul shall make her boast in the Lord : the humble shall hear thereof, and be glad.
- T.* O magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt his name together.
- S.* I sought the Lord, and he heard me, and delivered me from all my fears.
- T.* They looked unto him, and were lightened : and their faces were not ashamed.
- S.* This poor man cried, and the Lord heard him, and saved him out of all his troubles.
- T.* The angel of the Lord encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them.
- S.* O taste and see that the Lord is good : blessed is the man that trusteth in him.
- T.* O fear the Lord, ye his saints ; for there is no want to them that fear him.
- S.* The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger : but they that seek the Lord shall not want any good thing.
- T.* Come, ye children, hearken unto me ; I will teach you the fear of the Lord.
- S.* What man is he that desireth life, and loveth many days, that he may see good ?
- T.* Keep thy tongue from evil, and thy lips from speaking guile.
- S.* Depart from evil, and do good ; seek peace, and pursue it.
- T.* The eyes of the Lord are upon the righteous, and his ears are open unto their cry.
- S.* The face of the Lord is against them that do evil, to cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.
- T.* The righteous cry, and the Lord heareth, and delivereth them out of all their troubles.
- S.* The Lord is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart ; and saveth such as be of a contrite spirit.
- T.* Many are the afflictions of the righteous : but the Lord delivereth him out of them all.
- S.* He keepeth all his bones : not one of them is broken.
- T.* Evil shall slay the wicked : and they that hate the righteous shall be desolate.
- All.* The Lord redeemeth the soul of his servants ; and none of them that trust in him shall be desolate.

Selection Eighteenth.

PSALM 42.

Teacher. As the hart panteth after the water-brooks, so panteth my soul after thee, O God.

School. My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God: when shall I come and appear before God?

T. My tears have been my meat day and night, while they continually say unto me, Where is thy God?

S. When I remember these things, I pour out my soul in me: for I had gone with the multitude, I went with them to the house of God, with the voice of joy and praise, with a multitude that kept holy-day.

T. Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted in me? hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him for the help of his countenance.

S. O my God, my soul is cast down within me: therefore will I remember thee from the land of Jordan, and of the Hermonites, from the hill Mizar.

T. Deep calleth unto deep at the noise of thy waterspouts: all thy waves and thy billows are gone over me.

S. Yet the Lord will command his loving kindness in the daytime, and in the night his song shall be with me, and my prayer unto the God of my life.

T. I will say unto God my rock, Why hast thou forgotten me? why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

S. As with a sword in my bones, mine enemies reproach me; while they say daily unto me, Where is thy God?

All. Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God.

PSALM 118: 14-20.

T. The Lord is my strength and song,

S. And is become my salvation.

T. The voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the tabernacles of the righteous;

S. The right hand of the Lord doeth valiantly.

T. Open to me the gates of righteousness:

S. I will go into them, and I will praise the Lord;

T. This gate of the Lord,

S. Into which the righteous shall enter.

T. I will praise thee; for thou hast heard me,

S. And art become my salvation.

Selection Nineteenth.

PSALM 65.

Teacher. Praise waiteth for thee, O God, in Zion: and unto thee shall the vow be performed.

School. O thou that hearest prayer, unto thee shall all flesh come.

T. Iniquities prevail against me: as for our transgressions, thou shalt purge them away.

S. Blessed is the man whom thou chooseth, and causeth to approach unto thee, that he may dwell in thy courts: we shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house, even of thy holy temple.

T. By terrible things in righteousness wilt thou answer us, O God of our salvation; who art the confidence of all the ends of the earth, and of them that are afar off upon the sea:

S. Which by his strength setteth fast the mountains; being girded with power:

T. Which stilleth the noise of the seas, the noise of their waves, and the tumult of the people.

S. They also that dwell in the uttermost parts are afraid at thy tokens; thou makest the outgoings of the morning and evening to rejoice.

T. Thou visitest the earth, and waterest it: thou greatly enrichest it with the river of God, which is full of water: thou preparest them corn, when thou hast so provided for it.

S. Thou waterest the ridges thereof abundantly: thou settlest the furrows thereof: thou makest it soft with showers: thou blessest the springing thereof.

T. Thou crownest the year with thy goodness; and thy paths drop fatness.

S. They drop upon the pastures of the wilderness: and the little hills rejoice on every side.

All. The pastures are clothed with flocks; the valleys also are covered over with corn; they shout for joy, they also sing.

PSALM 61.

T. Hear my cry, O God; attend unto my prayer.

S. From the end of the earth will I cry unto thee, when my heart is overwhelmed: lead me to the rock that is higher than I.

T. For thou hast been a shelter for me, and a strong tower from the enemy.

S. I will abide in thy tabernacle forever: I will trust in the covert of thy wings.

- T.* For thou, O God, hast heard my vows: thou hast given me the heritage of those that fear thy name,
S. Thou wilt prolong the king's life: and his years as many generations.
- T.* He shall abide before God forever; O prepare mercy and truth, which may preserve him.
All. So will I sing praise unto thy name forever, that I may daily perform my vows.

Selection Twentieth.

PSALM 46.

- Teacher.* God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.
School. Therefore will not we fear, though the earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea;
- T.* Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled, though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof.
S. There is a river, the streams whereof shall make glad the city of God, the holy place of the tabernacles of the Most High.
- T.* God is in the midst of her: she shall not be moved: God shall help her, and that right early.
S. The heathen raged, the kingdoms were moved: he uttered his voice, the earth melted.
- T.* The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge.
S. Come, behold the works of the Lord, what desolations he hath made in the earth.
- T.* He maketh wars to cease unto the end of the earth; he breaketh the bow, and cutteth the spear in sunder; he burneth the chariot in the fire.
S. Be still, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen. I will be exalted in the earth.

PSALM 63: 1-8.

- T.* O God, thou art my God; early will I seek thee: my soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee in a dry and thirsty land, where no water is;
S. To see thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary.
- T.* Because thy loving kindness is better than life, my lips shall praise thee.
S. Thus will I bless thee while I live; I will lift up my hands in thy name.

- T.* My soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness; and my mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips:
S. When I remember thee upon my bed, and meditate on thee in the night watches.
- T.* Because thou hast been my help, therefore in the shadow of thy wings will I rejoice.
S. My soul followeth hard after thee: thy right hand upholdeth me.

Selection Twenty-first.

PSALM 72.

- Teacher.* Give the king thy judgments, O God, and thy righteousness unto the king's son.
School. He shall judge thy people with righteousness, and thy poor with judgment.
- T.* The mountains shall bring peace to the people, and the little hills, by righteousness.
S. He shall judge the poor of the people, he shall save the children of the needy, and shall break to pieces the oppressor.
- T.* They shall fear thee as long as the sun and moon endure, throughout all generations.
S. He shall come down like rain upon the mown grass, as showers that water the earth.
- T.* In his days shall the righteous flourish; and abundance of peace so long as the moon endureth.
S. He shall have dominion also from sea to sea, and from the river unto the ends of the earth.
- T.* They that dwell in the wilderness shall bow before him; and his enemies shall lick the dust.
S. The kings of Tarshish and the isles shall bring presents: the kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts.
- T.* Yea, all kings shall fall down before him: all nations shall serve him.
S. For he shall deliver the needy when he crieth; the poor also, and him that hath no helper.
- T.* He shall spare the poor and needy, and shall save the souls of the needy.
S. He shall redeem their soul from deceit and violence: and precious shall their blood be in his sight.
- T.* And he shall live, and to him shall be given of the gold of Sheba: prayer also shall be made for him continually; and daily shall he be praised.
S. There shall be a handful of corn in the earth upon the top of the mountains; the fruit thereof shall shake like Lebanon: and they of the city shall flourish like grass of the earth.

T. His name shall endure for ever: his name shall be continued as long as the sun: and men shall be blessed in him: all nations shall call him blessed.

S. Blessed be the Lord God, the God of Israel, who only doeth wondrous things.

All. And blessed be his glorious name for ever: and let the whole earth be filled with his glory. Amen, and Amen.

Selection Twenty=Second.

PSALM 91.

Teacher. He that dwelleth in the secret place of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

School. I will say unto the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust.

T. Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence.

S. He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

T. Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day;

S. Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.

T. A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee.

S. Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked.

T. Because thou hast made the Lord, which is my refuge, even the Most High, thy habitation.

S. There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.

T. For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.

S. They shall bear thee up in their hands lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

T. Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet.

S. Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.

T. He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honor him.

S. With long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation.

PSALM 93.

- T.* The Lord reigneth, he is clothed with majesty; the Lord is clothed with strength, herewith he hath girded himself: the world also is established, that it cannot be moved.
- S.* Thy throne is established of old: thou art from everlasting.
- T.* The floods have lifted up, O Lord, the floods have lifted up their voice; the floods lift up their waves.
- S.* The Lord on high is mightier than the noise of many waters, yea, than the mighty waves of the sea.
- T.* Thy testimonies are very sure: holiness becometh thy house, O Lord, for ever.

Selection Twenty=Third.

PSALM 103.

- Teacher.* Bless the Lord, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless his holy name.
- School.* Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits:
- T.* Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases;
- S.* Who redeemeth thy life from destruction; who crowneth thee with loving kindness and tender mercies;
- T.* Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things; so that thy youth is renewed like the eagle's.
- S.* The Lord executeth righteousness and judgment for all that are oppressed.
- T.* He made known his ways unto Moses, his acts unto the children of Israel.
- S.* The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy.
- T.* He will not always chide: neither will he keep his anger for ever.
- S.* He hath not dealt with us after our sins: nor rewarded us according to our iniquities.
- T.* For as the heaven is high above the earth, so great is his mercy toward them that fear him.
- S.* As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us.
- T.* Like as a father pitieth his children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear him.
- S.* For he knoweth our frame; he remembereth that we are dust.
- T.* As for man, his days are as grass: as a flower of the field, so he flourisheth.
- S.* For the wind passeth over it, and it is gone; and the place thereof shall know it no more.

- T.* But the mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him, and his righteousness unto children's children ;
- S.* To such as keep his covenant, and to those that remember his commandments to do them.
- T.* The Lord hath prepared his throne in the heavens ; and his kingdom ruleth over all.
- S.* Bless the Lord, ye his angels, that excel in strength, that do his commandments, hearkening un'to the voice of his word.
- T.* Bless ye the Lord, all ye his hosts ; ye ministers of his, that do his pleasure
- S.* Bless the Lord, all his works in all places of his dominion : bless the Lord, O my soul.

Selection Twenty=Fourth.

PROVERBS 19: 1-25.

- Teacher.* Better is the poor that walketh in his integrity, than he that is perverse in his lips, and is a fool.
- School.* Also, that the soul be without knowledge, it is not good ; and he that hasteth with his feet sinneth.
- T.* The foolishness of man perverteth his way : and his heart fretteth against the Lord.
- S.* Wealth maketh many friends ; but the poor is separated from his neighbor.
- T.* A false witness shall not be unpunished ; and he that speaketh lies shall not escape.
- S.* Many will entreat the favor of the prince : and every man is a friend to him that giveth gifts.
- T.* All the brethren of the poor do hate him : how much more do his friends go far from him ? he pursueth them with words, yet they are wanting to him.
- S.* He that getteth wisdom loveth his own soul : he that keepeth understanding shall find good.
- T.* A false witness shall not be unpunished ; and he that speaketh lies shall perish.
- S.* Delight is not seemly for a fool ; much less for a servant to have rule over princes.
- T.* The discretion of a man deferreth his anger ; and it is glory to pass over a transgression.
- S.* Slothfulness casteth into a deep sleep ; and an idle soul shall suffer hunger.
- T.* He that keepeth the commandment keepeth his own soul ; but he that despiseth his ways shall die.

- S.* He that hath pity upon the poor lendeth unto the Lord; and that which he hath given will he pay him again.
- T.* Chasten thy son while there is hope, and let not thy soul spare for his crying.
- S.* A man of great wrath shall suffer punishment: for if thou deliver him, yet thou must do it again.
- T.* Hear counsel, and receive instruction, that thou mayest be wise in thy latter end.
- S.* There are many devices in a man's heart: nevertheless the counsel of the Lord, that shall stand.
- T.* The desire of a man is his kindness: and a poor man is better than a liar.
- S.* The fear of the Lord tendeth to life: and he that hath it shall not be visited with evil.
- T.* A slothful man hideth his hand in his bosom, and will not so much as bring it to his mouth again.
- S.* Smite a scorner, and the simple will beware: and reprove one that hath understanding, and he will understand knowledge.

Selection Twenty-fifth.

ISAIAH 12 and 55.

- Teacher.* O Lord, I will praise thee: though thou wast angry with me, thine anger is turned away, and thou comfortedst me.
- School.* Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust, and not be afraid: for the Lord Jehovah is my strength and song; he also is become my salvation.
- T.* Therefore with joy shall ye draw water out of the wells of salvation.
- S.* And in that day shall ye say, Praise the Lord, call upon his name, declare his doings among the people, make mention that his name is exalted.
- T.* Sing unto the Lord; for he hath done excellent things: this is known in all the earth.
- S.* Cry out, and shout, O thou inhabitant of Zion: for great is the Holy One of Israel in the midst of thee.
- T.* Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price.
- S.* Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? and your labor for that which satisfieth not? hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness.
- T.* Incline your ear, and come unto me: hear, and your soul shall live; and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David.

- S.* Seek ye the Lord while he may be found: call ye upon him while he is near.
- T.* Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.
- S.* For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the Lord.
- T.* For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.
- S.* For as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater:
- T.* So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.
- S.* For ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.
- T.* Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir-tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle-tree: and it shall be to the Lord for a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

Selection Twenty-Sixth.

MATTHEW 6: 19-34.

- Teacher.* Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal.
- School.* But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal:
- T.* For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.
- S.* The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light.
- T.* But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!
- S.* No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

- T.* Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment?
- S.* Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they?
- T.* Which of you by taking thought can add one cubit unto his stature?
- S.* And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin:
- T.* And yet I say unto you, That even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.
- S.* Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which today is, and to-morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?
- T.* Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed?
- S.* (For after all these things do the Gentiles seek;) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.
- T.* But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.
- S.* Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

Selection Twenty-Seventh.

MARK 4: 1-10, 13-20.

- Teacher.* And he began again to teach by the sea-side: and there was gathered unto him a great multitude, so that he entered into a ship, and sat in the sea; and the whole multitude was by the sea on the land.
- School.* And he taught them many things by parables, and said unto them in his doctrine,
- T.* Hearken; Behold, there went out a sower to sow:
- S.* And it came to pass, as he sowed, some fell by the wayside, and the fowls of the air came and devoured it up.
- T.* And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth; and immediately it sprung up, because it had no depth of earth:
- S.* But when the sun was up, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away.
- T.* And some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit.

S. And other fell on good ground, and did yield fruit that sprang up and increased; and brought forth some thirty, and some sixty, and some a hundred.

T. And he said unto them, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

S. And when he was alone, they that were about him with the twelve asked of him the parable.

T. And he said unto them, Know ye not this parable? and how then will ye know all parables?

S. The sower soweth the word.

T. And these are they by the wayside, where the word is sown; but when they have heard, Satan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts.

S. And these are they likewise which are sown on stony ground; who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness;

T. And have no root in themselves, and so endure but for a time: afterward, when affliction or persecution ariseth for the word's sake, immediately they are offended.

S. And these are they which are sown among thorns; such as hear the word,

T. And the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful.

S. And these are they which are sown on good ground; such as hear the word, and receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirty-fold, some sixty, and some a hundred.

Selection Twenty-Eighth.

LUKE 10: 25-37.

Teacher. And behold, a certain lawyer stood up, and tempted him, saying, Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

School. He said unto him, What is written in the law; how readest thou?

T. And he answering said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God, with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind: and thy neighbor as thyself.

S. And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt live.

T. But he, willing to justify himself, said unto Jesus, And who is my neighbor?

- S.* And Jesus answering said, A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among thieves, which stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead.
- T.* And by chance there came down a certain priest that way: and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.
- S.* And likewise a Levite, when he was at the place, came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side.
- T.* But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he had compassion on him,
- S.* And went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him.
- T.* And on the morrow when he departed, he took out two pence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him: and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee.
- S.* Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbor unto him that fell among thieves?
- T.* And he said, He that showed mercy on him. Then said Jesus unto him, Go, and do thou likewise.

Selection Twenty-Ninth.

JAMES 3.

- Teacher.* My brethren, be not many masters, knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation.
- School.* For in many things we offend all. If any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body.
- T.* Behold, we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body.
- S.* Behold also the ships, which though they be so great, and are driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helm, whithersoever the governor listeth.
- T.* Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold, how great a matter a little fire kindleth!
- S.* And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell.
- T.* For every kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed of mankind:

- S.* But the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison.
- T.* Therewith bless we God, even the Father; and therewith curse we men, which are made after the similitude of God.
- S.* Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be.
- T.* Doth a fountain send forth at the same place sweet water and bitter?
- S.* Can the fig-tree, my brethren, bear olive-berries? either a vine, figs? so can no fountain both yield salt water and fresh.
- T.* Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him show out of a good conversation his works with meekness of wisdom.
- S.* But if ye have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth.
- T.* This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, sensual, devilish.
- S.* For where envying and strife is, there is confusion and every evil work.
- T.* But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be entreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy.
- S.* And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of them that make peace.

Selection Thirtieth.

JAMES 4: 11-17.

- Teacher.* Speak not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge.
- School.* There is one lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy: who art thou that judgest another?
- T.* Go to now, ye that say, To-day or to-morrow we will go into such a city, and continue there a year, and buy and sell, and get gain:
- S.* Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapor, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away.
- T.* For that ye ought to say, If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this, or that.
- S.* But now ye rejoice in your boastings: all such rejoicing is evil.
- T.* Therefore to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin.

ROMANS 13: 7, 8, 10.

- S.* Render therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honor to whom honor.
- T.* Owe no man anything, but to love one another: for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law.
- S.* Love worketh no ill to his neighbor: therefore love is the fulfilling of the law.

Selection Thirty=First.

LUKE 11: 1-13.

- Teacher.* And it came to pass, that, as he was praying in a certain place, when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him, Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples.
- School.* And he said unto them, When ye pray, say, Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth.
- T.* Give us day by day our daily bread.
- S.* And forgive us our sins; for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.
- T.* And he said unto them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say unto him, Friend, lend me three loaves;
- S.* For a friend of mine in his journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him.
- T.* And he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not: the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give thee.
- S.* I say unto you, Though he will not rise and give him, because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity he will rise and give him as many as he needeth.
- T.* And I say unto you, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.
- S.* For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.
- T.* If a son shall ask bread of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone? or if he ask a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent?
- S.* Or if he shall ask an egg, will he offer him a scorpion?
- T.* If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children: how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him?

Selection Thirty=Second.

MATTHEW 5: 33-48.

- Teacher.* Again, ye have heard that it hath been said by them of old time, Thou shalt not forswear thyself, but shalt perform unto the Lord thine oaths:
- School.* But I say unto you, Swear not at all; neither by heaven; for it is God's throne:
- T.* Nor by the earth; for it is his footstool: neither by Jerusalem; for it is the city of the great King.
- S.* Neither shalt thou swear by thy head, because thou canst not make one hair white or black.
- T.* But let your communication be, Yea, yea; Nay, nay: for whatsoever is more than these cometh of evil.
- S.* Ye have heard that it hath been said, An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth:
- T.* But I say unto you, That ye resist not evil: but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also.
- S.* And if any man will sue thee at the law, and take away thy coat, let him have thy cloak also.
- T.* And whosoever shall compel thee to go a mile, go with him twain.
- S.* Give to him that asketh thee, and from him that would borrow of thee turn not thou away.
- T.* Ye have heard that it hath been said, Thou shalt love thy neighbor, and hate thine enemy.
- S.* But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you;
- T.* That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust.
- S.* For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the same?
- T.* And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? do not even the publicans so?
- S.* Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.

Selection Thirty=Third.

LUKE 6: 30-45.

- Teacher.* Give to every man that asketh of thee; and of him that taketh away thy goods ask them not again.
- School.* And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise.
- T.* For if ye love them which love you, what thank have ye? for sinners also love those that love them.
- S.* And if ye do good to them which do good to you, what thank have ye? for sinners also do even the same.
- T.* And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again.
- S.* But love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the Highest: for he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil.
- T.* Be ye therefore merciful, as your Father also is merciful.
- S.* Judge not, and ye shall not be judged: condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned: forgive, and ye shall be forgiven:
- T.* Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again.
- S.* And he spake a parable unto them, Can the blind lead the blind? shall they not both fall into the ditch?
- T.* The disciple is not above his master: but every one that is perfect shall be as his master.
- S.* And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but perceivest not the beam that is in thine own eye?
- T.* Either how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thyself beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to pull out the mote that is in thy brother's eye.
- S.* For a good tree bringeth not forth corrupt fruit; neither doth a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.
- T.* For every tree is known by his own fruit. For of thorns men do not gather figs, nor of a bramble bush gather they grapes.
- S.* A good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is evil: for of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh.

Selection Thirty-fourth.

MATTHEW 7: 1-14.

Teacher. Judge not, that ye be not judged.

School. For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again.

T. And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

S. Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye; and, behold, a beam is in thine own eye?

T. Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye.

S. Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you.

T. Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you:

S. For everyone that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

T. Or what man is there of you, whom if his son ask bread, will he give him a stone?

S. Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent?

T. If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him?

S. Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets.

T. Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat:

S. Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.

Selection Thirty-fifth.

MATTHEW 18: 1-14.

Teacher. At the same time came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?

School. And Jesus called a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them,

- T.* And said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.
- S.* Whoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven.
- T.* And whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me.
- S.* But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.
- T.* Woe unto the world because of offences! for it must needs be that offences come; but woe to that man by whom the offence cometh!
- S.* Wherefore if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into everlasting fire.
- T.* And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire.
- S.* Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father, which is in heaven.
- T.* How think ye? if a man have a hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray?
- S.* And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoiceth more of that sheep, than of the ninety and nine which went not astray.

Selection Thirty-Sixth.

LUKE 14: 7-15.

- Teacher.* And he put forth a parable to those which were bidden, when he marked how they chose out the chief rooms; saying unto them,
- School.* When thou art bidden of any man to a wedding, sit not down in the highest room; lest a more honorable man than thou be bidden of him;
- T.* And he that bade thee and him come and say to thee, Give this man place; and thou begin with shame to take the lowest room.

- S.* But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest room ; that when he that bade thee cometh, he may say unto thee, Friend, go up higher : then shalt thou have worship in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee.
- T.* For whosoever exalteth himself shall be abased ; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.
- S.* Then said he also to him that bade him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbors ; lest they also bid thee again, and a recompense be made thee.
- T.* But when thou makest a feast, call the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind :
- S.* And thou shalt be blessed ; for they cannot recompense thee : for thou shalt be recompensed at the resurrection of the just.
- T.* And when one of them that sat at meat with him heard these things, he said unto him, Blessed is he that shall eat bread in the kingdom of God.

LUKE 12 : 16-21.

- S.* And he spake a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully :
- T.* And he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have no room where to bestow my fruits ?
- S.* And he said, This will I do : I will pull down my barns, and build greater ; and there will I bestow all my fruits and my goods.
- T.* And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years ; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry.
- S.* But God said unto him, Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee : then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided ?
- T.* So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God.

Selection Thirty-Seventh.

MATTHEW 18 : 21-35.

- Teacher.* Then came Peter to him, and said, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him ? till seven times ?
- School.* Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times : but, Until seventy times seven.
- T.* Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, which would take account of his servants.

- S.* And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, which owed him ten thousand talents.
- T.* But forasmuch as he had not to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife, and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made.
- S.* The servant therefore fell down, and worshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.
- T.* Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion, and loosed him, and forgave him the debt.
- S.* But the same servant went out, and found one of his fellow servants, which owed him a hundred pence: and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay me that thou owest.
- T.* And his fellow servant fell down at his feet, and besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.
- S.* And he would not: but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt.
- T.* So when his fellow servants saw what was done, they were very sorry, and came and told unto their lord all that was done.
- S.* Then his lord, after that he had called him, said unto him, O thou wicked servant, I forgave thee all that debt, because thou desiredst me:
- T.* Shouldest not thou also have had compassion on thy fellow servant, even as I had pity on thee?
- S.* And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due unto him.
- T.* So likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses.

Selection Thirty-Eighth.

MATTHEW 20: 1-16.

- Teacher.* For the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is a householder, which went out early in the morning to hire laborers into his vineyard.
- School.* And when he had agreed with the laborers for a penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard.
- T.* And he went about the third hour, and saw others standing idle in the market-place,
- S.* And said unto them; Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you. And they went their way.
- T.* Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did likewise.

- S.* And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle?
- T.* They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard; and whatsoever is right, that shall ye receive.
- S.* So when even was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his steward, Call the laborers, and give them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first.
- T.* And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a penny.
- S.* But when the first came, they supposed that they should have received more; and they likewise received every man a penny.
- T.* And when they had received it, they murmured against the goodman of the house,
- S.* Saying, These last have wrought but one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us, which have borne the burden and heat of the day.
- T.* But he answered one of them, and said, Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst not thou agree with me for a penny?
- S.* Take that thine is, and go thy way: I will give unto this last, even as unto thee.
- T.* Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own? Is thine eye evil, because I am good?
- S.* So the last shall be first, and the first last; for many be called, but few chosen.

Selection Thirty-Ninth.

LUKE 12 : 22-34.

- Teacher.* And he said unto his disciples, Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat; neither for the body, what ye shall put on.
- School.* The life is more than meat, and the body is more than raiment.
- T.* Consider the ravens: for they neither sow nor reap; which neither have storehouse nor barn; and God feedeth them: how much more are ye better than the fowls?
- S.* And which of you with taking thought can add to his stature one cubit?

- T.* If ye then be not able to do that thing which is least, why take ye thought for the rest?
- S.* Consider the lilies how they grow: they toil not, they spin not; and yet I say unto you, that Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.
- T.* If then God so clothe the grass, which is to-day in the field, and to-morrow is cast into the oven; how much more will he clothe you, O ye of little faith?
- S.* And seek not ye what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, neither be ye of doubtful mind.
- T.* For all these things do the nations of the world seek after: and your Father knoweth that ye have need of these things.
- S.* But rather seek ye the kingdom of God; and all these things shall be added unto you.
- T.* Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom.
- S.* Sell that ye have, and give alms; provide yourselves bags which wax not old, a treasure in the heavens that faileth not, where no thief approacheth, neither moth corrupteth.
- T.* For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

Selection Fortieth.

MATTHEW 25: 14-29.

- Teacher.* For the kingdom of heaven is as a man travelling into a far country, who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods.
- School.* And unto one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one; to every man according to his several ability; and straightway took his journey.
- T.* Then he that had received the five talents went and traded with the same, and made them other five talents.
- S.* And likewise he that had received two, he also gained other two.
- T.* But he that had received one went and digged in the earth, and hid his lord's money.
- S.* After a long time the Lord of those servants cometh and reckoneth with them.
- T.* And so he that had received five talents came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents: behold, I have gained beside them five talents more.

- S.* His Lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant : thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things : enter thou into the joy of thy lord.
- T.* He also that had received two talents came and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents : behold, I have gained two other talents beside them.
- S.* His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant ; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things : enter thou into the joy of thy lord.
- T.* Then he which had received the one talent came and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art a hard man, reaping where thou hast not sown, and gathering where thou hast not strewed :
- S.* And I was afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth : lo, there thou hast that is thine.
- T.* His lord answered and said unto him, Thou wicked and slothful servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I have not strewed :
- S.* Thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the ex-changers, and then at my coming I should have received mine own with usury.
- T.* Take therefore the talent from him, and give it unto him which hath ten talents.
- S.* For unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance : but from him that hath not shall be taken away even that which he hath.

Selection Forty=First.

LUKE 15 : 11-24.

- Teacher.* And he said, A certain man had two sons :
- S.* And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his living.
- T.* And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living.
- S.* And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land ; and he began to be in want.
- T.* And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country ; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine.
- S.* And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat : and no man gave unto him.

- T.* And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger!
- S.* I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee,
- T.* And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants.
- S.* And he arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him.
- T.* And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son.
- S.* But the father said to his servants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet:
- T.* And bring hither the fatted calf, and kill it; and let us eat, and be merry:
- S.* For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost and is found. And they began to be merry.

Selection Forty=Second.

ROMANS 12: 9-21.

- Teacher.* Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good.
- School.* Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honor preferring one another;
- T.* Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord;
- S.* Rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; continuing instant in prayer;
- T.* Distributing to the necessity of saints; given to hospitality.
- S.* Bless them which persecute you: bless, and curse not.
- T.* Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep.
- S.* Be of the same mind one toward another. Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits.
- T.* Recompense to no man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men.
- S.* If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men.

- T.* Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.
- S.* Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head.
- T.* Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.

Selection Forty=Third.

GODLY LIVING.

- Teacher.* For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit, the things of the Spirit.
- School.* For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace.
- T.* Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be.
- S.* So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.
- T.* But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you.
- S.* Wherefore putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbor: for we are members one of another.
- T.* Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath:
- S.* Neither give place to the devil.
- T.* Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers.
- S.* And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption.
- T.* Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamor, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice:
- S.* And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you.
- T.* Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.
- S.* Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.
- T.* But godliness with contentment is great gain.
- S.* For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out.
- T.* And having food and raiment, let us be therewith content.

- S. But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition.
- T. For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.
- S. But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness.
- T. Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.
- S. Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

Selection Forty-Fourth.

JAMES I: 16-27.

Teacher. Do not err, my beloved brethren.

School. Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.

- T. Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures.
- S. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath:
- T. For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God.
- S. Wherefore lay apart all filthiness and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the engrafted word, which is able to save your souls.
- T. But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.
- S. For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass:
- T. For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was.
- S. But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed.

- T.* If any man among you seem to be religious, and bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain.
- S.* Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

Selection Forty=Fifth.

GALATIANS 6: 1-9.

Teacher. Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such a one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted.

School. Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ.

T. For if a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.

S. But let every man prove his own work, and then shall he have rejoicing in himself alone, and not in another.

T. For every man shall bear his own burden.

S. Let him that is taught in the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things.

T. Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

S. For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.

T. And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.

EPHESIANS 6: 10-18.

S. Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.

T. Put on the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

S. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

T. Wherefore take unto you the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.

- S.* Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness;
- T.* And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace;
- S.* Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked.
- T.* And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God:
- S.* Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance.

Selection Forty-Sixth.

MATTHEW 25: 34-45.

Teacher. Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world:

School. For I was an hungred, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in:

T. Naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me.

S. Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink?

T. When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee?

S. Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee?

T. And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.

S. Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed:

T. For I was an hungred, and ye gave me no meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me no drink:

S. I was a stranger, and ye took me not in: naked, and ye clothed me not: sick, and in prison, and ye visited me not.

T. Then shall they also answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, or athirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto thee?

S. Then shall he answer them, saying, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye did it not to one of the least of these, ye did it not to me.

Selection Forty-Seventh.

PROVERBS 8: 1-19.

Teacher. Doth not wisdom cry? and understanding put forth her voice?

School. She standeth in the top of high places, by the way in the places of the paths.

T. She crieth at the gates, at the entry of the city, at the coming in at the doors.

S. Unto you, O men, I call; and my voice is to the sons of man.

T. O ye simple, understand wisdom: and, ye fools, be ye of an understanding heart.

S. Hear; for I will speak of excellent things; and the opening of my lips shall be right things.

T. For my mouth shall speak truth; and wickedness is an abomination to my lips.

S. All the words of my mouth are in righteousness; there is nothing froward or perverse in them.

T. They are all plain to him that understandeth, and right to them that find knowledge.

S. Receive my instruction, and not silver; and knowledge rather than choice gold.

T. For wisdom is better than rubies; and all the things that may be desired are not to be compared to it.

S. I wisdom dwell with prudence, and find out knowledge of witty inventions.

T. The fear of the LORD is to hate evil: pride, and arrogance, and the evil way, and the froward mouth, do I hate.

S. Counsel is mine, and sound wisdom: I am understanding; I have strength.

T. By me kings reign, and princes decree justice.

S. By me princes rule, and nobles, even all the judges of the earth.

T. I love them that love me; and those that seek me early shall find me.

S. Riches and honor are with me; yea, durable riches and righteousness.

T. My fruit is better than gold, yea, than fine gold; and my revenue than choice silver.

Selection Forty-Eighth.

WISDOM CRIETH.

PROVERBS 8: 20-36.

Teacher. I lead in the way of righteousness, in the midst of the paths of judgment:

School. That I may cause those that love me to inherit substance ; and I will fill their treasures.

- T.* The Lord possessed me in the beginning of his way, before his works of old.
S. I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was.
- T.* When there were no depths, I was brought forth ; when there were no fountains abounding with water.
S. Before the mountains were settled, before the hills was I brought forth :
- T.* While as yet he had not made the earth, nor the fields, nor the highest part of the dust of the world.
S. When he prepared the heavens, I was there : when he set a compass upon the face of the depth :
- T.* When he established the clouds above : when he strengthened the fountains of the deep :
S. When he gave to the sea his decree, that the waters should not pass his commandment : when he appointed the foundations of the earth :
- T.* Then I was by him, as one brought up with him : and I was daily his delight, rejoicing always before him ;
S. Rejoicing in the habitable part of his earth ; and my delights were with the sons of men.
- T.* Now therefore hearken unto me, O ye children : for blessed are they that keep my ways.
S. Hear instruction, and be wise, and refuse it not.
- T.* Blessed is the man that heareth me, watching daily at my gates, waiting at the posts of my doors.
S. For whoso findeth me findeth life, and shall obtain favor of the Lord.
- T.* But he that sinneth against me wrongeth his own soul : all they that hate me love death.

Selection Forty-Ninth.

PSALM 37.

Teacher. Fret not thyself because of evildoers, neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquity.

School. For they shall soon be cut down like the grass, and wither as the green herb.

T. Trust in the Lord, and do good ; so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed.

- S.* Delight thyself also in the Lord; and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart.
- T.* Commit thy way unto the Lord; trust also in him; and he shall bring it to pass.
- S.* And he shall bring forth thy righteousness as the light, and thy judgment as the noonday.
- T.* Rest in the Lord, and wait patiently for him: fret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way, because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass.
- S.* Cease from anger, and forsake wrath: fret not thyself in any wise to do evil.
- T.* For evildoers shall be cut off: but those that wait upon the Lord, they shall inherit the earth.

PSALM 27.

School. The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear?
the Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?

Teacher. When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell.

- S.* Though an host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear: though war should rise against me, in this will I be confident.
- T.* One thing have I desired of the Lord, that will I seek after; that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the Lord, and to inquire in his temple.
- S.* For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion: in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me; he shall set me up upon a rock.
- T.* And now shall mine head be lifted up above mine enemies round about me: therefore will I offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy; I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto the Lord.
- S.* Hear, O Lord, when I cry with my voice: have mercy also upon me, and answer me.
- T.* When thou saidst, Seek ye my face; my heart said unto thee, Thy face, Lord, will I seek.
- S.* Hide not thy face far from me; put not thy servant away in anger: thou hast been my help; leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.
- T.* When my father and my mother forsake me, then the Lord will take me up.
- S.* Teach me thy way, O Lord, and lead me in a plain path, because of mine enemies.

- T.* Deliver me not over unto the will of mine enemies: for false witnesses are risen up against me, and such as breathe out cruelty.
- S.* I had fainted, unless I had believed to see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living.
- T.* Wait on the Lord: be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thine heart: wait, I say, on the Lord.

Selection Fiftieth.

REVELATION 21: 1-7; 23-27.

- Teacher.* And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea.
- School.* And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.
- T.* And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.
- S.* And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things, are passed away.
- T.* And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful.
- S.* And he said unto me, It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely.
- T.* He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son.
- S.* And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.
- T.* And the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honor into it.
- S.* And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for there shall be no night there.
- T.* And they shall bring the glory and honor of the nations into it.
- S.* And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life.

Selection Fifty=First.

PSALM 8.

Teacher. O Lord our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth! who hast set thy glory above the heavens.

School. Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength because of thine enemies, that thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger.

T. When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained;

S. What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him?

T. For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honor.

S. Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things under his feet:

T. All sheep and oxen, yea, and the beasts of the field;

S. The fowl of the air, and the fish of the sea, and whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas.

T. O Lord our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth!

PSALM 84.

S. How amiable are thy tabernacles, O Lord of hosts!

T. My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth for the courts of the Lord: my heart and my flesh crieth out for the living God.

S. Yea, the sparrow hath found an house, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young, even thine altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God.

T. Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be still praising thee.

S. Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee; in whose heart are the ways of them.

T. Who passing through the valley of Baca make it a well; the rain also filleth the pools.

S. They go from strength to strength, every one of them in Zion appeareth before God.

T. O Lord God of hosts, hear my prayer: give ear, O God of Jacob.

S. Behold, O God our shield, and look upon the face of thine anointed.

T. For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand. I had rather be a door-keeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

S. For the Lord God is a sun and shield: the Lord will give grace and glory: no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.

T. O Lord of hosts, blessed is the man that trusteth in thee.

Selection Fifty=Second.

PSALM 95.

Teacher. O come, let us sing unto the Lord: let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation.

School. Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving, and make a joyful noise unto him with psalms.

T. For the Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods.

S. In his hand are the deep places of the earth: the strength of the hills is his also.

T. The sea is his, and he made it; and his hands formed the dry land.

S. O come, let us worship and bow down: let us kneel before the Lord our maker.

T. For he is our God; and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand.

PSALM 92.

S. It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord, and to sing praises unto thy name, O Most High:

T. To shew forth thy loving-kindness in the morning, and thy faithfulness every night,

S. Upon an instrument of ten strings, and upon the psaltery; upon the harp with a solemn sound.

T. For thou, Lord, hast made me glad through thy work: I will triumph in the works of thy hands.

S. O Lord, how great are thy works! and thy thoughts are very deep.

T. A brutish man knoweth not; neither doth a fool understand this.

S. When the wicked spring as the grass, and when all the workers of iniquity do flourish; it is that they shall be destroyed for ever:

T. But thou, Lord, art most high for evermore.

S. For, lo, thine enemies, O Lord, for, lo, thine enemies shall perish; all the workers of iniquity shall be scattered.

T. The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree: he shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon.

- S.* Those that be planted in the house of the Lord shall flourish in the courts of our God.
- T.* They shall still bring forth fruit in old age; they shall be fat and flourishing;
- S.* To shew that the Lord is upright: he is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.

Selection Fifty=Third.

PSALM 15.

- Teacher.* Lord, who shall abide in thy tabernacle? who shall dwell in thy holy hill?
- School.* He that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness, and speaketh the truth in his heart.
- T.* He that backbiteth not with his tongue, nor doeth evil to his neighbor, nor taketh up a reproach against his neighbor.
- S.* In whose eyes a vile person is contemned; but he honoreth them that fear the Lord. He that sweareth to his own hurt, and changeth not.
- T.* He that putteth not out his money to usury, nor taketh reward against the innocent. He that doeth these things shall never be moved.

PSALM 24.

- S.* The earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein.
- T.* For he hath founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the floods.
- S.* Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord? or who shall stand in his holy place?
- T.* He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully.
- S.* He shall receive the blessing from the Lord, and righteousness from the God of his salvation.
- T.* This is the generation of them that seek him, that seek thy face, O Jacob.
- S.* Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lifted up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.
- T.* Who is this King of glory? The Lord strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle.
- S.* Lift up your heads, O ye gates; even lift them up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.
- T.* Who is this King of glory? The Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory.

Selection Fifty=Fourth.

JOB 28.

- Teacher.* Surely there is a vein for the silver, and a place for gold where they fine it.
- School.* Iron is taken out of the earth, and brass is molten out of the stone.
- T.* He setteth an end to darkness, and searcheth out all perfection: the stones of darkness, and the shadow of death.
- S.* The flood breaketh out from the inhabitant; even the waters forgotten of the foot: they are dried up, they are gone away from men.
- T.* As for the earth, out of it cometh bread: and under it is turned up as it were fire.
- S.* The stones of it are the place of sapphires: and it hath dust of gold.
- T.* There is a path which no fowl knoweth, and which the vulture's eye hath not seen:
- S.* The lion's whelps have not trodden it, nor the fierce lion passed by it.
- T.* He putteth forth his hand upon the rock; he overturneth the mountains by the roots.
- S.* He cutteth out rivers among the rocks; and his eye seeth every precious thing.
- T.* He bindeth the floods from overflowing; and the thing that is hid bringeth he forth to light.
- S.* But where shall wisdom be found? and where is the place of understanding?
- T.* Man knoweth not the price thereof; neither is it found in the land of the living.
- S.* The depth saith, It is not in me: and the sea saith, It is not with me.
- T.* It cannot be gotten for gold, neither shall silver be weighed for the price thereof.
- S.* It cannot be valued with the gold of Ophir, with the precious onyx, or the sapphire.
- T.* The gold and the crystal cannot equal it: and the exchange of it shall not be for jewels of fine gold.
- S.* No mention shall be made of coral, or of pearls: for the price of wisdom is above rubies.

- T.* The topaz of Ethiopia shall not equal it, neither shall it be valued with pure gold.
- S.* Whence then cometh wisdom? and where is the place of understanding?
- T.* Seeing it is hid from the eyes of all living, and kept close from the fowls of the air.
- S.* Destruction and death say, We have heard the fame thereof with our ears.
- T.* God understandeth the way thereof, and he knoweth the place thereof.
- S.* For he looketh to the ends of the earth, and seeth under the whole heaven;
- T.* To make the weight for the winds; and he weigheth the waters by measure.
- S.* When he made a decree for the rain, and a way for the lightning of the thunder:
- T.* Then did he see it, and declare it; he prepared it, yea, and searched it out.
- S.* And unto man he said, Behold the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom; and to depart from evil is understanding.

Selection Fifty-Fifth.

JOB 38: 1-20.

- Teacher.* Then the Lord answered Job out of the whirlwind, and said,
- School.* Who is this that darkeneth counsel by words without knowledge?
- T.* Gird up now thy loins like a man; for I will demand of thee, and answer thou me.
- S.* Where wast thou when I laid the foundations of the earth? declare, if thou hast understanding.
- T.* Who hath laid the measures thereof, if thou knowest? or who hath stretched the line upon it?
- S.* Whereupon are the foundations thereof fastened? or who laid the corner stone thereof;
- T.* When the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy?
- S.* Or who shut up the sea with doors, when it brake forth?
- T.* When I made the cloud the garment thereof, and thick darkness a swaddling-band for it,
- S.* And brake up for it my decreed place, and set bars and doors,
- T.* And said, Hitherto shalt thou come, but no further: and here shall thy proud waves be stayed?

- S.* Hast thou commanded the morning since thy days; and caused the dayspring to know his place;
- T.* That it might take hold of the ends of the earth, that the wicked might be shaken out of it?
- S.* It is turned as clay to the seal; and they stand as a garment.
- T.* And from the wicked their light is withholden, and the high arm shall be broken.
- S.* Hast thou entered into the springs of the sea? or hast thou walked in the search of the depth?
- T.* Have the gates of death been opened unto thee? or hast thou seen the doors of the shadow of death?
- S.* Hast thou perceived the breadth of the earth? declare if thou knowest it all.
- T.* Where is the way where light dwelleth? and as for darkness, where is the place thereof,
- S.* That thou shouldest take it to the bound thereof, and that thou shouldest know the paths to the house thereof?

Selection Fifty-Sixth.

PSALM 130.

- Teacher.* Out of the depths have I cried unto thee, O Lord.
- School.* Lord, hear my voice: let thine ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications.
- T.* If thou, Lord, shouldest mark iniquities, O Lord, who shall stand?
- S.* But there is forgiveness with thee, that thou mayest be feared.
- T.* I wait for the Lord, my soul doth wait, and in his word do I hope.
- S.* My soul waiteth for the Lord more than they that watch for the morning: I say, more than they that watch for the morning.
- T.* Let Israel hope in the Lord: for with the Lord there is mercy, and with him is plenteous redemption.
- S.* And he shall redeem Israel from all his iniquities.

PSALM 121.

- T.* I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help.
- S.* My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth.
- T.* He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: he that keepeth thee will not slumber.
- S.* Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep.

- T.* The Lord is thy keeper: the Lord is thy shade upon thy right hand.
S. The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night.
- T.* The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul.
S. The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore.

Selection Fifty-Seventh.

PSALM 89.

- Teacher.* I will sing of the mercies of the Lord for ever: with my mouth will I make known thy faithfulness to all generations.
School. For I have said, Mercy shall be built up for ever: thy faithfulness shalt thou establish in the very heavens.
- T.* And the heavens shall praise thy wonders, O Lord: thy faithfulness also in the congregation of the saints.
S. For who in the heaven can be compared unto the Lord? who among the sons of the mighty can be likened unto the Lord?
- T.* God is greatly to be feared in the assembly of the saints, and to be had in reverence of all them that are about him.
S. O Lord God of hosts, who is a strong Lord like unto thee? or to thy faithfulness round about thee?
- T.* Thou rulest the raging of the sea: when the waves thereof arise, thou stillest them.
S. Thou hast broken Rahab in pieces, as one that is slain; thou hast scattered thine enemies with thy strong arm.
- T.* The heavens are thine, the earth also is thine: as for the world and the fulness thereof, thou hast founded them.
S. The north and the south thou hast created them: Tabor and Hermon shall rejoice in thy name.
- T.* Thou hast a mighty arm: strong is thy hand, and high is thy right hand.
S. Justice and judgment are the habitation of thy throne: mercy and truth shall go before thy face.
- T.* Blessed is the people that know the joyful sound: they shall walk, O Lord, in the light of thy countenance.
S. In thy name shall they rejoice all the day: and in thy righteousness shall they be exalted.
- T.* For thou art the glory of their strength: and in thy favor our horn shall be exalted.
S. For the Lord is our defense; and the Holy One of Israel is our king.

INDEX TO FIRST LINES.

	No.		No.
Almighty God, in humble prayer	72	Flag of the free	177
A peal of thunder	178	For the beauty of the earth	135
Angels holy, high and lowly	44	Fountain of life divine	114
Ark of freedom	182	For thee, O dear, dear country	26
As pants the wearied hart	117	Gently, Lord, oh, gently lead us	43
Awake, my soul, and with the sun	31	Glorious things of thee	163
Bells of Easter, swing	171	God bless our native land	52
Blest are the pure in heart	11	God is love; His mercy brightens	78
Brightest and best of the sons	110	God is our Refuge	142
Brightly gleams our banner	173	God, my King	149
Cast thy burden on the Lord, Only	47	God of mercy, God of grace	103
Cast thy burden on the Lord; Lean	159	God of the morning ray	24
Children of the heavenly King	15	God of truth, Thy sons	83
Columbia, the gem of the ocean	176	God shall charge His angel	136
Come, gracious Spirit	5	Gone are those great and good	51
Come, Holy One, in love	49	Gracious God, our Heavenly Father	14
Come, let us lift our joyful eyes	34	Gracious Spirit, Love divine	82
Come, O my Soul	183	Great God! my Father	70
Come, Thou almighty King	23	Great Ruler of all nature's	76
Come unto Me, when shadows	111	Guide me, O Thou great Jehovah	123
Come unto Me, ye weary	108	Hail, Columbia	180
Come, we that love the Lord	37	Hark! what mean those holy voices	165
Dear ties of mutual succor	2	Heavenly Father, send Thy blessing	135
Early, my God, without delay	63	Holy, holy, holy Lord, God	1
Eternal Source of life	132	Hosanna we sing	121
Faithful Shepherd, feed me	67	How can we serve Thee	154
Far from mortal cares retreating	148	How gentle God's commands	12
Father divine, this dead'ning power	119	How rich the blessings	61
Father, hear the prayer	106	If through unruffled seas	39
Father of life	41	Immortal Love	131
Father of light, conduct my feet	144	In heavenly love abiding	85
Father, Thy paternal care	150	In the morning I will pray	101
Father, we are young	115	In the still air	118
Father, whate'er of earthly bliss	35	I read of "many mansions"	99
		I want the spirit of power	92

INDEX TO FIRST LINES.

	No.		No.
Jehovah! God! Thy gracious	33	Oh, that the Lord would guide	74
Jerusalem the golden	109	O Light, whose beams illumine all	93
Jesus, lover of my soul	151	O my Father, never more	81
Joyful be the hours	161	Open now Thy gates of beauty	172
Keep my feet from hidden snares	48	O Source divine	58
Lead, kindly Light	90	Once more, my soul	7
List! afar! what angel voices	167	On the fount of life	100
Like a river glorious	68	On the mountain-top appearing	124
Lo, the Eternal is our Lord	84	Onward, Christian soldiers	66
Lord and Father	77	O Thou whose power	120
Lord before Thy presence	128	O Thou who sendest	30
Love divine, all love excelling	164	Our Father, God, who art in heaven	147
Lord, in Thy great, Thy glorious	71	Our Father! through the coming year	145
Lord of all power and might	50	Our heaven is everywhere	38
Lord of earth! Thy forming hand	45	Peace, troubled soul	94
Lord, we come to seek Thy blessing	42	Pilgrims in this vale of sorrow	79
Lord! we come before Thee now	18	Praise the Lord; ye heavens	16
Lord, with glowing heart	80	Praise the Lord, when blushing morning	17
Lord, when my raptured thought	75	Praise to God, immortal praise	139
Maker of all things	155	Praise to Thee, Thou great Creator	41
'Mid pleasures and palaces	186	Quiet, Lord, my froward heart	140
My country, 'tis of thee	174	Remember Thy Creator now	96
My faith looks up to Thee	22	Rise, my soul, and stretch thy wings	53
My God, how endless is Thy love	60	Rock of ages	116
My soul, repeat His praise	13	See the rivers flowing	157
Nearer, my God, to Thee	113	Should auld acquaintance be forgot	185
New every morning is the love	4	Soldiers of the cross, arise	152
Nobly our flag	175	Sometimes a light surprises	25
No change of time, shall ever shock	65	Spirit Divine, attend	36
No room within the dwelling	170	Standing at the portal	56
No seas again shall sever	88	Stealing from the world away	19
Now let us sing the Angel's song	169	Still, still with Thee	27
Now that the sun is gleaming	9	Summer suns are glowing	158
Now the shades of night	20	Suppliant, lo, Thy children	160
Now when the shades of dusky night	143	Sweet is the work, my God	69
O give thanks to Him	104	Take my heart, O Father	105
O God, the Rock of Ages	87	Teach me, my God	10
O God, whose presence	29	Tell me not in mournful numbers	107
O gracious God! in whom I live	134	The breaking waves dashed high	186
Oh, blest the souls, for ever blest	3	The flowers that bloom in sun	153
Oh, how kindly hast Thou	166	The Homeland	55
Oh, say, can you see	181	The King of love my Shepherd is	137

INDEX TO FIRST LINES.

	No.		No.
The Lord is our Shepherd	57	Try us, O God	97
The Lord is King	184	Through all the changing scenes	62
The morning, the bright	89
The Lord my pasture	91	Upward I lift mine eyes	129
They who on the Lord	162
The Lord Himself	146	We are but strangers here	112
There's nothing bright, above	59	We would leave, O God! to Thee	46
They who seek the throne	21	We bless Thee for Thy peace	8
The light pours down from heaven	54	What child is this	168
Thine forever! God of Love	126	When all Thy mercies	73
This curious frame	32	When before Thy throne	127
Thou who dwellest enthroned above	102	When winds are raging	28
Thy goodness, Lord	6	When we in holy worship	86
Thou art the Way	98	While our days on earth	122
'Tis God the Spirit leads	40	While Thee I seek	95
To God on high be thanks	130	While the sun is shining	156
To Him from whom our blessings	133
To Thy pastures fair and large	125	Yes, I will bless Thee	64
Tranquil and peaceful	141	Ye sons of Freedom	179
